Pathwork Lecture 17: The Call - Daily Review

1996 Edition, Original Given November 22, 1957

This lecture is given in an expanded poetic format, what I call a Devotional Format of the lecture, and in that sense this is my interpretation of the intent of the lecture. I may have interpreted portions differently from you, and I ask you to ponder the words for your own interpretation. I did this Devotional Format so I can take the words into my heart, phrase by phrase, much as I would in reading poetry – that is, devotionally.

The blessings to me in developing this format have been truly profound, and my wish is that this Devotional Format will be a blessing to others. I invite you to slowly read and ponder this format of the text – with an open heart to experience the Guide's Presence and Love emerging from among the words such that the wisdom comes to LIVE you.

For clarity: The original text is in bold and italicized. [My adds of commentary/clarification/interpretation are in brackets, italicized, and not bolded.] To learn more of my Devotional Format and see the lectures I have done in this way, go to https://www.garyvollbracht.com/pathwork-lectures/pathwork-lectures-devotional-format/

03	Greetings in the Name of the Lord. I bring you His blessings, my friends.
04	Very few people indeed have no belief in God at all. Almost everyone has at least a feeble belief • in a higher intelligence, • in a superior wisdom that created this universe.
	Yet very few people know how to continue on logically from this premise [i.e., the premise that there is a higher intelligence]. They limit God all the time.

              There are many of you who admit · God exists.
                       • God or
                       • this Higher Intelligence – or whatever you choose to call it - is of course one and the same.
              Yet
                  you do not believe that it could be possible in this wonderful Creation for an entity
                                  of higher intelligence than human beings to manifest to you through a human instrument, if
                                                 • preparations are made and
                                                 • certain conditions fulfilled.
                                              This, you think,
                                                 is incredible.
                                              This is something you cannot believe.
              But why not, my friends?
              Why is it so hard to believe?
              It is certainly not unimaginable that creatures
                       • of higher intelligence,
                       • of greater wisdom,

    endowed with more love than human beings should exist!

              If so,
                   it should be possible to communicate with them.

A hundred years ago

it would have seemed impossible to you

- that a machine could fly in the sky, or
- that you could turn a knob and hear music played hundreds of miles away, or
- that you could turn a knob and see pictures.

Often,

because some people whom you trust declare that something is

- possible and
- scientific,

you agree,

even though you yourself

never experienced it.

Why then,

when communication with the spirit world of God is manifested to you, do you still think

somewhere in the back of your mind

- that it is impossible,
- that it must be, if not a trick,
 - a delusion,
 - the subconscious of the medium, or
 - something of the sort?

Is that reasonable, my friends?

If so many other astounding things are possible in this world of yours, why should it not be equally possible that God sends you His emissaries of truth for your benefit?

This, in itself,
is not more astounding than so many other things that you have freely accepted.

07 Furthermore,
                  there are a number of people who know and

                          • admit that a communication with the beyond is possible.
                  They have experienced it;
                  thev
                       have no possible doubt about it.
              Yet,
                  they deny the possibility of such a communication with higher entities than themselves.
                               This
                                 is even more unreasonable!
              Although it is quite true that a communication with divine spirits
                              is far more difficult to obtain,
                                  which is
                                      as it should be,
              it is highly illogical
                  to believe that it [i.e., that a communication with divine spirits] is impossible.
              If God has created any possibility of communication with people on the other side, then He must also have given you
                       the means of communing with higher spheres from where you can receive teachings that • further you spiritually and • bring you nearer to God.

08 So, my friends, communication with divine spheres • is possible; it [i.e., communication with divine spheres] • has always existed and • will always exist. How frequently it occurs depends solely • on people, • on whether or not they fulfill the necessary requirements. · have occasionally mentioned what these requirements are and • may mention them again in the future. However, any of you who are seriously interested can find out about • the mechanics • of mediumship, • of what is necessary to communicate with divine spheres, • what the difference is between such advisable communication [i.e., advisable communication with divine spheres] and that [i.e., communication] with • earthbound and • erring spirits and • how this difference can be determined.

In fact, any one of you who really wants to form a judicious opinion [about communicating with divine spheres] has the duty
                                 to find out, otherwise
                  you have no right to say, even to yourself,
                          that all this [communicating with divine spheres]
                              is impossible.
09 There are many people who are called.
                       God
                          is calling them.
              Whether this call will come forth or not depends on a person's spiritual development.
              Granted,
                  there are many, many people living on earth who have not experienced such a call.
              They are still in their spiritual childhood and such a call would be meaningless for them.

They have not yet attained the strength and

                       • development
                          necessary to follow it; therefore God waits
                       until they have reached sufficient maturity in the course of their various incarnations, [incarnations] where they • gather experience and

                                              • wisdom, and,
                                         • step by step,
                                              • develop spiritually.
              But at some time
                   the call must come forth, and I venture to say that everyone of you, my friends, has been called.
10
              How do you feel this call,
                          you might ask.
              As I have said repeatedly, the human being consists of two natures:
                               • the higher
                            and
                               • the lower
                                  self,
                                      which are in conflict with one another.

The higher self
    • registers the call and • pushes the person in a certain direction
            which the conscious self cannot immediately interpret.
The conscious self
   just feels
         • a certain longing,
         • a certain dissatisfaction with the present life, even when you fulfill all your earthly duties to the best of your ability.
Nonetheless,
    there is
         • a certain
            voice within you, • a certain
           pressure;
it seems as though you were being pushed
            in some unknown direction, you don't know quite where and

                   • why.
You will eventually find out,
            provided you • do not fight against it and
                   • do not give in to your lower self.

11
                 your lower self
                        were not also alive within you, it would be comparatively easy
                       to follow the call.
              But
                  your lower self

    does not want to make any effort, it

                           any change, and it

    holds you back and

                        • furnishes you with many excuses not to follow your higher self.
              The excuses [not to follow your higher self, excuses furnished by your lower self,] are manifold.
              Some are quite transparent, like "I have no time."
              Or they [i.e., Or the excuses not to follow your higher self] take the form of doubts.
              These are all rationalizations but, [in your] being inexperienced • in differentiating and
                   • in pulling off your masks,
              you
                   believe the
                        • pretexts and
                        • self-illusions, the • voice of your lower self, because you
                        want
                           to believe
                               these rationalizations;
                                  it is so much easier to do so [than it is to challenge them].
```

But until this fight [with the rationalizations and excuses offered by your lower self] is successfully won, once and for all,
                          you will not have peace -
                                      never,
                                         my friends!
              The call will become stronger and stronger as you go on,
              and the more
                  you resist it,
                       the more dissatisfied you must become with your life.
              The more
                  God can expect from you because of your basic spiritual development, the more
                  dissatisfied you must be if you do not follow this call.
12
              The question has been asked time and again
                       why there are so many people who are inferior to others and yet
                                 are much happier.
                                      • This appears to be an injustice.
                                      • Why is this so?

It is because less can be expected
                       of a child
                          in a lower grade than
                       of a child
                          in a higher grade.
                   must be dissatisfied with your • outer life
                       as well as with your • inner life
              if you do not deliver according to your development.
13 Now that you have understood how the call is felt,
              I will explain
                   • what follows it and • what is expected of you.
              Your lower self
                   has some idea of it.
                       If it had not,
                          it would not fight against it.
              Now what does God want from you when He calls you?

```
He [i.e., God]
does not expect you
• to be a martyr or
• to fulfill tremendous tasks; though He may expect the latter of some of you,
He does not expect it from most of you.

You can fulfill His will between your four walls and no one has to know about it.

Who is to say • what is

Simply because

• what is

you are

• famous and a big task and a little one?

• in the limelight

does not necessarily mean that your task

is a greater one

working spiritually in solitude with no one knowing about it.

What God wants

from each and every one of you, as the

- first step and
- necessary prerequisite before you can give to others,

is

- self-development,
- self-purification, and
- self-knowledge.

It [i.e., what God wants from you]
                      • tearing off your masks; • tearing away all your self-delusions about

    yourself and

                                 • your • inner or • outer motives.
              God expects
                      from you.
14 Whoever
                   is not quite
                         • happy and • harmonious can truthfully declare:
                                 "I have not quite followed God's call." How happy
                  are you?
             How well-balanced
                  are you?
             How harmonious
                  are you
                      "inside"?
```

```
Outside
    you may have troubles,
         but if you
            • are truly on the right path and • fulfill God's will for you, no matter what your outer
         difficulties may be,
           you
                must be happy.
That [inner happiness]
    should be your yardstick and

         • indication of
                • where you stand and • how much you are fulfilling [God's will],
                   my friends.
I want each one of you, when you go home tonight,
         to ask yourself:
         • "How happy am I?
         • How satisfied am I
            • with my life and
            • with myself?"
         Think about it.
If you feel any • disharmony or • dissatisfaction, you will know the answer.
```

15
              If you really want
                       to follow the call,
                          you can.
              Do not say,
                       • "I do not know • how or
                               • where to turn;
                       • I cannot do it alone."
              Of course, you cannot do it alone.
              However,
                   • first you must really want to do it [i.e., really want to follow the call]; • first you must decide for it [i.e., decide for following the call] • clearly and
                                  • unconditionally, then God will guide you
                       • wherever you need to go and • through whatever means may be best for you • so that you receive the necessary help from outside, • so that you can develop yourself within to the highest degree that can be expected of you.
```

16 It is not enough
                   that you
                       • lead a decent life and
                       • are a so-called ethical person • who does no harm to others and · who does not violate earthly laws.
                               This may be enough for a person who is a younger soul,
                                  not for any of you,
                                      my friends.
              So
                   • test yourself and
                   • answer the question:
                       How much do I really want
                               to follow the call,
                       even if it means that I have to • use • willpower,
                                      • effort,
                                      • patience – and, perhaps,
                                  • suffer some pain?
17 • Self-recognition and
              • the tearing off of masks is always painful
                       during the process, although it is a great relief afterward - a relief that will bring a very new peace into your soul once you have overcome the initial resistance.

So you must realize that first
         • you have to go to battle with your lower self;
         • you have to enlist your conscious willpower to conquer
                       your lower self.
                       Combined with your higher self,
                              your will-directing consciousness must win.
    do not be superficial about it.
Test yourself
    again and again
        as to • how sincere,
            • how deep is your desire to do God's will.
            • How much
                are you willing to sacrifice?
                What you have to sacrifice may be
                       • comfort,
                       • self-delusion,
                       • selfishness,
                       • holding on to various
                               • faults and
                               • weaknesses.
            • How much are you willing to give up all this?

18 First
                  this sacrifice
                       will appear to be tremendous,
              but only while you are in the battle.
              Afterward
                  will come the realization that you have freed yourself of
                              • burdens and
                               • chains that were directly responsible for your unhappiness.
                  you will recognize without a shadow of a doubt that God's will for you means
                                  no sacrifice, for it [i.e., for God's will for you] brings you happiness
                                                 on every plane of existence:
                                                     • physical,
                                                     • mental,
                                                     • emotional, and
                                                     • spiritual.
                  as long as you have not actually won this victory [over the lower self],
                           • the decision [to follow the call of God] and
                           • its consequences [i.e., the consequences of following the call of God] will appear to you to demand a sacrifice - and this [apparent sacrifice], too, is what God wants from you.

There is a reason
    why
         He does not give you the realization of all this [i.e., the realization that following God's will actually brings you happiness on every level of your existence and, hence, is, in reality, no sacrifice] • before, but only • afterward.
In other words,
    • until you have completely decided to do the will of God, whatever
                   this may mean, and • until you have made
           your lower self
                submissive -
                        and this [making your lower self submissive] can be done
                               if you penetrate your willpower into all layers of consciousness - you should not even try to think about • what you should do or • what the practical consequences of your decision [to follow the will of God] will be.

What follows next [after you have made this decision to follow the will of God completely and after you have made your lower self submissive]

will be made known to you

- through guidance,
- through inspiration.

Do not worry about it now.

You will emerge from this battle [within yourself] not only • victoriously, but also
                          • a great deal stronger than you were before, and, needless to say,
                          • a somewhat happier person.
              You will not be quite the same person
                          before you entered this battle.
              And then [after this battle within]
                       will help you further along to take the next step.
              This
                  you may safely believe.
              Ask God
                  for the strength to win the battle.
20
              All you have to do is to think of asking God for His help.
              Many people say wonderful prayers using
                          • beautiful and • poetic words, but they seldom think of asking for help with their immediate spiritual problems.

This [not asking God for help for immediate spiritual problems] is a great mistake, for there are also spiritual laws governing this issue.
              If you
                   ask for help,
              you can receive it,
                   particularly the kind of help I have mentioned.
21
                   expected to turn to God with your difficulties.
              If you • really want this help with all your heart and • ask God for it,
                       He will answer you.
                               I can promise it.
               The only question left
                     is

    how honestly

                           do you really want it?
                        • How much still remains of your lower self that is powerful enough to pull you into the opposite direction?

As long as
    you
         • do not face this [i.e., face how much remains of your lower self] and • do not
                to realize the significance of it [i.e., the significance of your lower self that remains in you]
    • you cannot win, and
    • your prayer
         will not have the desired effect because it is
                   • half-hearted and
                   • full of reservations.
I am giving you these words so that you will know how to • win your battle [with your lower self] and • follow your call.
Only then [i.e., only when you win your battle with your lower self and follow God's call] will you find the
            • peace and • harmony of the fulfillment for which you are longing - all of you.

Everyone knows that selfishness is wrong.

By the same token,
everyone knows
that to give to one's brothers and sisters is right.

- It is according to divine law, and
- it makes one happy.

There are many different kinds of giving, however.

For many people
the easiest way out, if I may say so,
is to give financially.

- It hurts least and
- it means the smallest sacrifice.

Everyone knows,
on the other hand,
that to give love
is the greatest gift of all.

And each one of you asks nothing better than to be able to give love.

But how many of you find yourselves saying, "If only I knew how [to love]! I am unable to love as much as I want to love." If this is how you feel, my dear ones, your soul • is sick in some way and it • must be cured. 23 You cannot effect this cure alone, but God will help you. If all your inner currents were flowing according to divine law, you would certainly be able to love. Each one of your • faults and shortcomings is a direct hindrance to the unfolding of love. When I say unfoldment, I mean that the love you wish to give forth is already within you. You cannot receive it [i.e., you cannot receive love] from the outside.

It [i.e., Love]
                   exists within you,
              but it [i.e., the love within you] is covered by obstructing layers that prevent your love
                                       • from shining through,
                                       • from manifesting itself.
               These layers
                   are, as I said,
                        • your faults,
                        • your fears, and
                        • your ignorance of spiritual law.
               These layers
                   have to disappear,
              and this can only be accomplished by your
                        • very personal and • serious endeavors.
               This
                   is the path to God.
               This
                   is what it means to follow the call.
24 Each one of your faults is a • direct or • indirect hindrance to love.
```

You can never learn love through forcing yourself, but love will • grow and
• evolve as an organic consequence of your self-purification.

One of the best meditations is to ponder:

- "What are my faults?
- And how could any of my faults possibly hinder the manifestation of the love that obviously must be hidden within me?"

I challenge each one of you to present me
with a personal example, for at first you may think that a number of your faults could have absolutely no bearing on the unfoldment of love, and yet it is so!

23	At the same time, there is a • wonderful and • direct road to loving,
	in addition to the indirect one just mentioned.
	Both [the indirect and direct roads to loving] should be taken simultaneously to further the growth of love within you.
	within you.
	If you can bring yourself to learn to do what I will tell you now, • you will gain a powerful weapon to cure yourself of the sick currents within your soul, and
	• you will unfold
	the love in you.
	ine tore in you.
26 Each living individual has the understandable tendency to want to appear superior to others.
	superior to official
	• You hide your faults, • you hide your shortcomings, and
	• you want to show your best side.
	• You all crave
	• admiration,
	·
	acceptance, andlove.
	• You think that showing your best side will bring you love.

And yet
                  you all know that if you want to receive love,
                          give it first.
              Impressing other people, whether you do it • consciously or • unconsciously, is not giving love.
              On the other hand,
                  you decidedly give love in the deepest sense when you • give and • show yourself
                               • as you really are, • without any masks - even if it means a little humiliation.
27 Yes, my friends, in this way [i.e., by giving and showing yourself as you are, without any masks] you offer
                          the greatest gift.
              Why?
              Because
                  your fellow creatures feel just as insecure
                              as you do.
```

If they [i.e., if your fellow creatures] see you
         as perfect as you want to appear,
their sense of inferiority
         will grow.
They will feel,
    • consciously or
    • unconsciously:
         "He is so perfect – or she is so perfect – why can't I be that way?"
They will feel even • lonelier and
    • more deflated, and they will
    • despise themselves even more.
Therefore
    they will,
            • in their blindness and
            • as their only defense, put an even tighter shell around themselves.
                This separates them even more from their brothers and sisters.
They will do what you are doing
         by trying so hard to appear • independent, • hard, and
                • oh, so perfect!
```

```
Yet
                  if you show yourself
                        • as you really are,
                        • with all your weaknesses,
                        • without any pretense, you make a
                        • great and
                        • generous gift;
              your brother or sister will think,
                   "Well, he, or she, is not any better than I am," and this will give him or her a lift.
              He or she
                   • will relax,
                   • will feel less lonely.
               Then do you know what will happen?
                        You will receive in this way exactly what you have set out to gain: · love,
                                          • admiration.
28 You will receive
                       love
              because you have first given it up [i.e., you have first given up trying to receiving love].
               You know
                   the spiritual law:
                       first
                          you have to give up what you want to gain.

You have given up
                  • admiration, which means you have given up
                                 • making an impression, • wanting love from others because you
                                        appear so wonderful;
              instead you have made a gift to others by diminishing their loneliness in their supposed imperfection.
              All people think they are quite alone
                          with their imperfections, even though
                  they may
                       • see and • criticize the imperfections of others all the time.
                       This is one of the inconsistencies of the • blind and undeveloped

                                     self.
29
              You have given up
                  • your vanity.
              You have given up
                  • some of your ego.
```

```
And
    this is why you must receive in
                • this way [i.e., this way of giving up seeking admiration and love, and giving up vanity, and some of your ego], and in
                • this way alone,
            what you have never succeeded in receiving • the other way,
                        your lower self
                           has chosen until now in its blindness.
If you
    give up your ego
         in this way,
you bestow
    the greatest possible gift on another human being, and therefore the law [i.e., the spiritual law: first you have to give up what you want to gain, here, giving up receiving love in order to receive love] must take effect.
It is such a simple way,
    my dear ones,
        so simple that none of you would ever think of it.
And yet,
    at first it does not appear easy.
It seems difficult to pull yourself down from the high place vou
                • consciously or

                   have built for yourself.

```
Once you have taken this step [of pulling yourself down from the high place you have built for yourself] in spite of all resistance, you must see divine law working
                          • within you and
                          • outside of you.
                               The result
                                  must come.
30 Wherever
                  there is a problem that you cannot solve, try this [i.e., try showing yourself as you really are, with all your weaknesses, without any pretense].
                               Try it!
              • You do not have to exaggerate;
              • you do not have to go to strangers
                       and pull yourself down.
                       This [i.e., exaggerating your weaknesses and pulling yourself down] might even embarrass others.
              Just take off your masks
                       • naturally and
                       • unostentatiously.
              Find out
                  • what and
                  • who you really are
                              be that person.
```

```
Here, too,
    you will receive
         • help,
         • opportunity, and
         • the inspiration
            as to
                • when and
                • how to do it [i.e., when and how to be with others naturally and without masks and pretense], once you have decided to ask God
                               for His help.
All of a sudden,
      if
         you leave yourself open, you will find yourself in a position - perhaps
                        • with some member of your family or
                        • with a friend – to discover
                   for the first time in your life • that you have so far put on an act,
                        • that you have not given yourself
                               as you really are.
Once you become conscious of this,
    you will be able to act
            • as you really are,
                my friends, and
            • without any pretense.

31
              No
                  sickly exaggerations!
                  extremes!
              As in everything else,
                  here too
                      you find
                          two extremes.
             A number of people indulge in
                       • self-debasement,
                      • pulling themselves down in the eyes of others.
              They say,
                  • I am
                      so bad,
                  • I am
                      such a sinner, • I am
                       this and • I am
                      that.
              This is as insincere a mask
                      as the other extreme.
             Such people want to accomplish by these means the very same thing
                              as the other group of people [who build themselves up].
              This is quite a smart maneuver, although it is often unconscious.

By accusing
                  yourself,
              you take the weapon
                   out of the hands of the others.
              In this situation,
                   they
                       • will find it quite impossible to accuse you and • will even be inclined to contradict
                              your self-accusations;
                                      thus the [i.e., your] ego is bolstered.
              Furthermore,
                  you think
                       • that accusing yourself is sufficient and
                       • that you do not have to do anything further about overcoming
                                  your shortcomings.
              This attitude exists too and it is just as bad as its opposite.
32
              When you think about this question, think of the two extremes.
              It is important to know • your weaknesses, and
                       • which extreme you tend to,
                          for only what is truly genuine
                                  will have an effect:
                                      of that you can be quite sure!
                                                     This too is a law.

33
33	And now, my dear friends,
	I am ready for your questions.
	QUESTION:
	May I have some help in finding the psychological problem underlying my physical condition?
34
5.	ANSWER:
	Yes, my dear friend.
	I will answer your question in a general way which will also apply partly to yourself.
	I cannot give you a completely personal answer here;
	• it would not be fair
	to the others, and
	• it would not be fair
	to you.
	However,
	a general explanation • will help you to search in the right direction and • will, at the same time, be useful to everyone.
35 Whenever there is a so-called psychosomatic illness,
	• the cause or
	• the root
	of it has to be found in the unconscious.

This is very difficult to do
         alone;
nevertheless,
    there are certain points which I can give you to help you get a little further on this road.
In the first place,
    I would advise you
         to find out
            all your faults, for there are hardly any human beings - unless they have gone through such a purification process with help from someone - who are really aware of all their faults.
And they [i.e., all your faults] can be found.
It is not easy;
    it means perhaps also
         a little humiliation,
            which is
                • good and • healthy for you, particularly in the connection I have just mentioned [i.e., connection between psychosomatic illnesses and the unconscious].

Ask

- your dear ones, and
- those who
 - are closest to you and
 - · know you best,

"Please tell me, what are my faults?

You can tell me frankly;
I will not be angry with you;

I will consider carefully what you say."

And after they have done so, consider every one of the faults that have been mentioned, even if you are convinced that you are unjustly accused.

You will always find some grain of truth in what others have observed about you.

This will give you a very important clue which will direct you in coming to the roots of your problems.

The fewer faults you find,
the more proof you have
that you do not know yourself
very well.

37
              The best way to find out about your unconscious apart from dream analysis - but not everyone knows how to do that - is by doing what I call
                                 the Daily Review.
                                     With its help
                                        you can find out
                                            your true reactions
                                               to certain events;
                                            you begin to
                                               • pull off masks and
                                               • stop pretenses.
                                            You can find out
                                               where your actions go against a spiritual law.
              The daily review
                  should be conducted in the following manner: Let the whole day pass
                              • in front of your eyes and
                              • in your memory;
                      think of everything
                         that · has happened and
                              • has given you,
                                 in some way,
                                     a disharmonious
                                        • feeling or
                                        • reaction.
                                     And no matter how wrong the other person may have been, the moment you have been negatively touched by it, there must be something wrong within you.
```

```
Write down in a few words
                • the occasions,
                • your reactions and
                • [your] associations.
If you
    follow this practice through for some time to come,
            and
                • not just once or twice, but
                • faithfully, you will see after a while a clear pattern
            emerging.
At first,
    these disharmonious incidents will appear
            • entirely unconnected and • isolated;
    they will be meaningless for you.
Later on you will begin to • sense and, in time,

    clearly understand the pattern.

This will help greatly [in finding out about your unconscious and your faults].

38 You should
                  pray for
                       • enlightenment and • guidance every time you conduct
                       the daily review.
              Then
                  ideas
                       • will flow into you and • will eventually furnish you
                              with further clues [about your unconscious and your faults], though at first they may not make sense to you.
              Do not discard
                       any of the ideas;
              do not resist them.
              Later on,
                  all of them will form
                          a clear picture [of aspects of your unconscious and your faults].
              As with a puzzle,
                  when you look at the pieces,
                  you cannot see
                       the picture,
              but if you
                  patiently
                       put them [i.e., put the pieces] together, you will succeed.
              Thus you will uncover your hidden

    anxieties and

                          • complexes which are responsible for your disease.

```
Most of it [i.e., most of what is responsible for your disease]
                   is

    anxiety or

                        • fear, almost all of it,
                   in one form or another,
                        • a fear
                           • that you do not permit yourself
                                  to realize
                                       • consciously, • that you have pushed back into your • unconscious.
              So now
                   you have to let it [i.e., let the fear] out.
              It takes
                   • time and • effort
                           you
                               • can deal with it properly in your conscious mind and • become aware of the spiritual laws from which you have deviated
                                               within your soul.
39
               The recognition of your faults
                        • is of utmost importance and
                        • relates directly to your hidden anxieties.

```
This [recognition of your faults related to your hidden anxieties] is the only way your problems can be solved.
And I tell you, my friend,
    there is
         • a great fear in you,
                part of which you do not want to acknowledge, • a fear
            that creates hostility
                   in certain aspects of your life, which again
                           you do not want to see.
When you find this out [i.e., when you find out that there is a fear in you that is creating hostility in your life], you are at
         the root,
and all that remains to be accomplished is the reeducation of certain emotional currents.
If you go about it seriously
         and not expect a result • tomorrow or
            • next week,
                and vet
                   keep on working,
vou must come to the roots, and thus dissolve
            the knot in your soul which creates
                   the physical symptoms.
Is that clear?
QUESTIONER
Yes, thank you.

	QUESTION:
	I would like to ask if you could explain the miracle of Therese von Neumann who has the stigmata that bleed every week;
	she has not eaten for years 41
	ANSWER:
	Well, I cannot possibly give you in this short time a technical explanation of how these things work, but there are many, many things
	possible in this world.
	What you call
	"miracles"
	are simply laws
	you do not understand, just as many people do not know
	• the laws governing communication with the beyond, • that a spirit can manifest through a medium.
	There are many spiritual laws governing mastery
	over the physical body, and this person is not the only one who has done it.
	There are other examples where physical functions are completely controlled.
	When this happens,
	certain influences from the spirit world can occur.
	Such phenomena belong in the same chapter.

73	QUESTION:
	I would like to ask about the evolution of animals.
	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
	When the highest animal becomes a human being, for instance.
	That a nice gentle horse becomes the lowest type of human being,
	such as a criminal,
	I can't imagine.
44
	ANSWER:
	No,
	you cannot say
	• one horse
	turns into
	• a human being.
	That is not correct.
	There are
	• many parts
	that
	• form a whole.
	, and the second
	And it does not necessarily have to be a criminal.
	No,
	it is not so.

It is rather that a person
         on the lowest level of human development
                • knows very little,
                • is still very blind,
    and if he becomes a criminal
            it is only because his free will directs him to give in to the lower part of his nature.
You see,
    the soul particles incarnated as animals are different aspects of the human inner makeup.
Perhaps one horse - though this is but a rough explanation - would represent one aspect [of a human's inner makeup], and so on.
Because
    the animal soul
         is not a whole,
    it is just a particle of a group soul.
Before incarnation,
    the group souls
         of the respective animals are collected in the spirit world
and for a long time they [i.e., the group souls] are put through an extremely complicated process, which would be impossible to explain to you.

They [i.e., the group souls] are made unconscious and their
    • fluids and
    • subtle bodies are dissolved and

           • put through a process where new subtle bodies can form around
                              the original divine spark, nearer to the state that it once was.
Then
    the first incarnation can begin
           and there is a clean slate.
Whatever
    this being decides,
           it can do.
                Is that somehow clearer?
QUESTIONER
Yes.
ANSWER:
I realize this is extremely complicated for any of you to understand.

              Animals
                  have the same diseases
                       as human beings,
              but human beings
                  learn from their disease.
              What can an animal learn from having a disease?
              ANSWER:
              That is not the point.
              At that stage,
                  before the human incarnation, there is nothing to learn;
              it [i.e., the disease]
                  is just something to go through.

              Do
                  the great ideas
                       start in the spirit world or do they start here
                          and are taken back [to the spirit world]?
              ANSWER:
              Oh no.
              They [i.e., the great ideas] start in the spirit world, of course.
              For every • specialty, • art, or • science – and I have mentioned this before - there are
                  • special spheres.
```

```
Different creatures

    work and

    • create in the respective spheres.
When these beings
    are incarnated, they bring something of their knowledge with them.
         Only part of it, of course.
                They cannot remember all of it.
They
    unfold their gift here [on earth]
    with the help of their friends in the spirit world who guide them accordingly.
But
    the ideas are created
            in the spirit world.
The entire earth
    is only the • effect, not the
         • origin or
         • cause.
    everything
         must be created
            in the spirit world.

              QUESTION: Are the • spirits or
                   • doctors or
                   • masters in the spirit world
              limited
                  in the extent of their ability to advise us in some material problems?
              ANSWER:
              Oh, yes,
                   they are, indeed,
                       limited
                          to an extent.
              They [i.e., those in the spirit world] can do it [i.e., can advise you] only according to law,
                               which is
                                  • very firmly regulated and • very wisely [regulated].
              Here again
                  you touch on a question that is impossible for you to understand.
                               You can only have a vague idea of it.
              For example,
                   the spirits cannot possibly interfere with [i.e., interfere by offering] their guidance in anybody's affairs if the interference [offered by means of their guidance] would hamper
                                  the person's free will.

You live on this earth with your free will for a very definite purpose.
It is not so important whether everything [you experience] is • pleasant and • painless.
         Only you human beings think that this [i.e., think that everything being pleasant and painless] is of utmost importance.
When you have
    • a disease, when you feel • pain, when you have
    • a problem or
    • some sort of unhappiness, you think this is the end of the world.
Your goal is
    • to be always happy and • to eliminate all problems the easy way,
but
    that is not the point [of your life on earth].
The point is
    • how you can overcome them [i.e., overcome your diseases, pains, problems, and unhappiness], • how you can solve your problems, and • how you can meet them from a spiritual point of view.

Only in that way [i.e., only by meeting and solving life's issues from a spiritual point of view] can you become • strong and • independent.
              If there would be undue interference, you would not be capable of learning what you have to learn [from your life experience on earth].
48 QUESTION: Even if
                  we ask for certain specific help?
              ANSWER:
              Certainly,
                  help can be given,
                       and this again
                          is regulated
                              according to law.
              The fact that you ask for it [i.e., ask for help] is already a sign
                          that you have learned something.
              But here again,
                  you have to be careful about how to ask.
              I would advise you
                  to ask in this way:
              "Show me,
                  Father.
                       the real reason
                          for my difficulties,
                       can solve them."
```

Do not ask that the difficulty is simply taken away.
                       That would be the wrong and

                          • immature way of asking.
              But if you
                  ask
                       the right way, trying to learn from your difficulties, you will be answered.
              And perhaps
                  you will be answered
                       in a very different way than you thought, my dear!

              QUESTION:
              To what extent can we expect to help heal our friends through • meditation and
                              • prayer?
              ANSWER:
              Very few people, indeed, have the strength to heal
                          through prayer.
              However,

    your prayers and

                  • your thinking
                       • of friends, or
                       • of anyone for that matter, in meditation,
                              is of tremendous help.

You cannot
    even begin to appreciate how much
            you can help
                in that way.
As you know, each
         • thought and
         • feeling is a substantial form
                   in the spirit world,
and no thought
         is ever lost, especially not a • constructive and
                   • good one that comes from
                               • love and
                               • goodwill.
These thoughts add to the cosmic
            • reservoir and
            • flow in the universe, so that the forces of good become that much stronger compared to the forces of evil,
for each evil thought
         is
            • added to that [i.e., added to the evil] reservoir and • furnishes it [i.e., furnishes the evil reservoir] with strength.

              If,
                       according to many factors which I cannot discuss here, direct help
                       can be given to a particular friend - perhaps in a different form than you human beings can conceive of at present - then your prayer will have an immediate result.
              If,
                   on the other hand,
                       this dear one has to go through some difficulties for the sake of his or her • eventual and • permanent happiness and

                                              • liberation from bonds, then
                       your prayer
                          will not be lost either.
                               You can be quite sure of that.
              Its [i.e., your prayer's] form remains preserved, so to speak, and will have its proper effect
                                  at the proper time.
              So nothing of that sort
                  is ever lost.

             I cannot recommend strongly enough
                  that the few privileged people who have found God in their souls to some extent devote more time to prayer
                      not only
                         • for themselves but
                         • for other people also.
              Offer your prayers
                  • for general development, • for the unhappy souls who have not yet reached even a glimmer of light.
             So many thoughts are wasted
                      in • unproductive and even • harmful brooding.
             If
                  that same time could be used productively -
                                and there is nothing more productive than prayer -
                             then
                                you would add a great force to the Plan of Salvation that is working in the whole universe.

              QUESTION:
              I would like to know if everything
                       is a manifestation of man's belief?
              ANSWER:
              How exactly
                  do you mean that, my dear?
              QUESTION:
              I mean
                  everything that we know on earth.
                      Is it
                         the result of what we believe it to be?
53
              ANSWER:
              It is very difficult to answer this with a yes or a no.
              I will try to put it this way:
              • The earth sphere or
              • the material world has been created for you humans
                         for a definite purpose which I have mentioned many times.
              The main purpose [of the earth sphere or material world] is development.
              In the earth sphere,
                  development
                      proceeds infinitely faster [than it does in our spirit spheres].
```

Your earth sphere,

with all that is contained therein -

- landscapes,
- mountains,
- seas,
- houses,
- any object –
- exists concretely and
- does not alter its shape according to people's attitudes.

In other words, you see this room the same way

• a person of much higher development or

• someone of much lower development would.

The objects in this room remain the same

for any human being with a normal sense of perception, while the spirit world

is the outpicturing

of the spirit's

- ideas.
- attitudes,
- thoughts, and
- mentality.

There [i.e., in the spirit world],

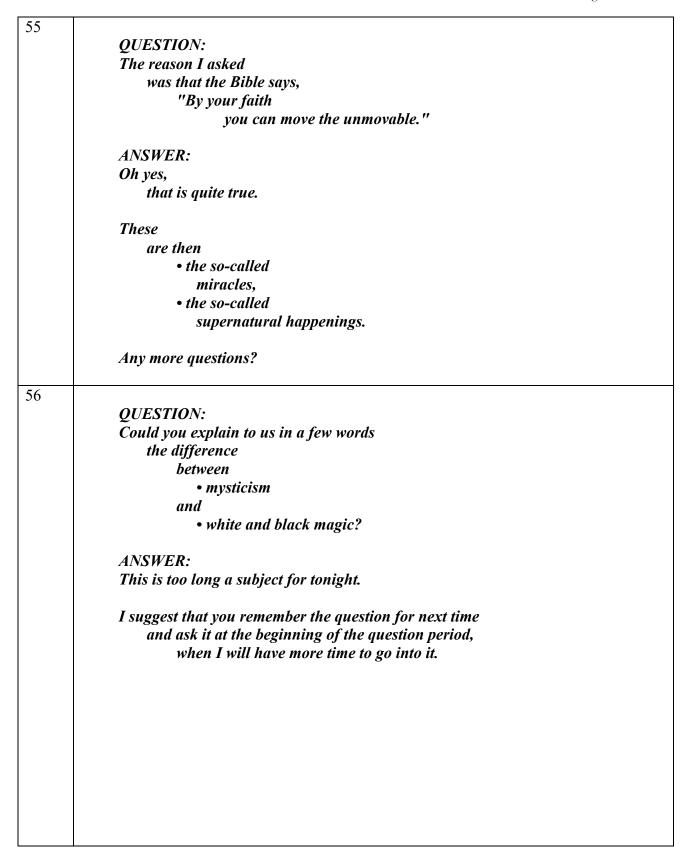

everything

is the result of

- thoughts,
- feelings, and
- deeds.

Therefore,
    spirits
         of the same development are always together in one sphere.
Other spirits,
    let us say
         lower ones, could not even see these • landscapes or objects
                           the spirits see and • which are the products of their personalities.
But on earth
    it is not that way,
         and
            there is a very good reason for that.
Yet,
    in another way,
         there is a particle of truth in what you have said, but not as far as the actual objects are concerned.
It is much more in the sense of what people
            do with their lives.
A person can • guide and • determine his or her own life
            to a very large degree, and in that way you are right.

54 Anyone who has sufficient faith will also automatically follow the divine laws.
              And anyone who is seriously trying to • learn and
                          • keep the divine laws
                                  will gain the faith that may still be lacking at the beginning of this path.
              Here, too,
                   nobody can have faith
                          by forcing it;
                               it can only grow organically
                                      by self-development.
              It [i.e., faith]
                   will grow
                       by living these laws,
              even though it [i.e. living these laws] may be difficult at the beginning.
              Then [i.e., as your faith grows by living these divine laws]
                  vou
                       • guide your own life and • produce all the conditions that you need to find God, while [conversely]
                   by not following the divine laws you produce unfavorable conditions.
              In that respect what you think is true.
                               Do you understand the difference?

57 I will retire and leave you with the blessings of the Lord. Receive His love, for there is actually a great blessing in this room, right now. And if you are open to it, though perhaps not all of you can see this shining force, you may • feel it and receive it and • use it for God. Be in peace!
