

Pathwork Lecture 27: Escape Possible Also on the Path

1996 Edition, Original Given April 11, 1958

This lecture is given in an expanded poetic format, what I call a Devotional Format of the lecture, and in that sense this is my interpretation of the intent of the lecture. I may have interpreted portions differently from you, and I ask you to ponder the words for your own interpretation. I did this Devotional Format so I can take the words into my heart, phrase by phrase, much as I would in reading poetry – that is, devotionally.

The blessings to me in developing this format have been truly profound, and my wish is that this Devotional Format will be a blessing to others. I invite you to slowly read and ponder this format of the text – with an open heart to experience the Guide’s Presence and Love emerging from among the words such that the wisdom comes to LIVE you.

For clarity: The original text is in bold and italicized. [My adds of commentary/clarification/interpretation are in brackets, italicized, and not bolded.] To learn more of my Devotional Format and see the lectures I have done in this way, go to <https://www.garyvollbracht.com/pathwork-lectures/pathwork-lectures-devotional-format/>

*Moreover,
it often happens that you are not even aware of this basically wrong attitude.*

Yet, due to your otherwise sincere desire to go on the path of

- self-development,*
- self-recognition or*
- purification,*

*or whatever other name you choose to give it, guidance starts in,
partly from*

- guardian spirits and*
- partly emanating from*
- your own higher self* that wishes to draw your attention to this wrong attitude.

*This holds true
not only for those people who are very new to the Pathwork.*

As a matter of fact, we can often observe human beings who are

- sincerely desirous to walk on this path,*

who are

- open in many respects,*

who are

- genuine truth-seekers,* and yet they are blind in one or two respects to their own inner makeup.

	This [having blind spots even though sincere and open about seeking truth] applies even to people <ul style="list-style-type: none">• who have discovered many truths and• who are advanced in some ways, yet there is <ul style="list-style-type: none">• one blind spot in them,• a stubborn resistance to facing their<ul style="list-style-type: none">• outer and• inner dilemmas.
05	Oh yes, the outer conflicts are always noticed, but you all know <ul style="list-style-type: none">• the outer conflict is only a reflection of<ul style="list-style-type: none">• the inner one [i.e., the inner conflict]. Yet people so often have the wrong attitude; in a very subtle way they think if they are trying to advance in a certain way, <ul style="list-style-type: none">• the outer conflict will eventually cease and• they somehow expect conditions to change according to<ul style="list-style-type: none">• their own ideas,• the preconceived ideas they have formed because of this wrong basic attitude.

*So you overlook
the simple fact that first*
• your ideas have to change before
• the vexing conditions have a chance to change too.

Thus you find yourself at a certain crucial point on this path in a vicious circle:

• you wait for a change in your [outer] conditions, while
• the conditions wait for you to change your [inner] ideas.

06

*I want to draw your attention to this,
my friends.*

This applies not only to those friends who are truly
• beginning this path now, but also even more strongly to those who

• have been on this path for quite some time and who
• have been sincere in their endeavors.

*You see, my friends, you have to try hard
not to evade the issue [i.e., not to evade the issue of changing your inner ideas or attitude in order to end this vicious circle] any more,* and yet this [i.e., yet this evading the need to change your inner ideas or attitude] is what you are constantly doing.

*Sit down quietly,
my friends,
and consider calmly what*

- your worries,
- your conflicts

are.

These may be numerous.

In one case, it may be a problem of

- human relationship;

in other cases

- something else.

*But whatever the [outer] problem is,
be aware that this [outer] problem is in direct connection with an inner wrong attitude of yours and* *pray

for*

- recognition,

for

- guidance,

for

- enlightenment in this respect [i.e., in respect to what wrong inner attitude is causing your outer problem].

If you

• search in this direction [i.e., in the direction of your inner attitude] at all and if you

• are really open

• to find your particular answer and

• to see the connection of your

• outer problem

with

• the inner one [i.e., with the inner problem],

• guidance can be given;

or rather,

• the recognition [of what wrong inner idea, problem, or attitude is giving rise to your outer problem] will come to you, for often

• the guidance is there

but

• you refuse to see it!

You refuse to see

• the signs [of what wrong inner idea or attitude is giving rise to your outer problem],

• the many pointed signs, that are constantly

given you.

And you go on turning away from this particular issue [i.e., away from the issue that your wrong inner idea or attitude is giving rise to your outer problem].

You search [for answers that will take away your outer problem] in another way;

you make excuses

for yourself; and you try to tell yourself that your

outer problem

has other connections [and is not at all connected to your inner ideas or attitudes].

07

*Now, my friends,
to be on this path
in itself
is no guarantee against escape [i.e., escape from recognizing that your wrong inner idea or attitude is giving rise to your outer problem].*

*You all know that anything
can be an escape [from recognizing that your wrong inner idea or attitude is giving rise to your outer problem].*

*This is true certainly
• of religion and even
• of this path!*

*For instance, if you take the words that are given here [in these lectures] and interpret them
• in a wrong way,
• in a way that suits your own self-deception, then the path
is used as an escape [from recognizing that your wrong inner idea or attitude is giving rise to your outer problem].*

*If you are blind to that part of the teachings that could open your eyes [to how your inner attitudes are causing your problems], but there is something in you that struggles against hearing the truth [that your inner attitudes are causing your problems], and so you
busily
do not hear that which could be useful for you [in these teachings], while you continue to be very much impressed by things [in these teachings] that may be • true and • beautiful but are less important for your particular case, then these teachings are an escape [from finding the inner problems that give rise to outer problems].*

Do not believe that simply by

- being on this path,

simply by

- following some of my advice

simply by

- reading these lectures

simply by

- meditating and
- praying

every day

you have a guarantee that you

- can face yourself, or

that you

- do not escape

what is yet unsolved in you.

*This may surprise you, my friends,
but it is important to understand.*

Everything you do is always accompanied by the question of how you do it.

The fact that you are doing such and such

- is not yet sufficient and
- will never guarantee that it [i.e., that the “such and such” you are doing] will lead you out of your own darkness.

So it [i.e., so the effectiveness of your Pathwork in leading you out of your own darkness rather than being a means of escape from facing yourself] depends entirely on

- how you go about doing this Pathwork and
- what you are willing to face.

08

*Now, my friends,
I want to say this:*

That which you so often avoid facing is not necessarily something that is deeply covered in your subconscious.

Oh no.

It [i.e., that which you avoid facing in yourself] very often is • right in front of your nose.

is
• so obvious;*

• so simple that you do not want to see it.*

You often look for answers too far away.

You strive for things that may be much harder to find, but what is right in front of you, you continue to disregard.

09

*It is true that many people who are spiritually
very advanced as yet
seem to get away with so much.*

once you have attained
a certain level in spiritual development, even though you do escape from some of your inner conflicts, the stronger the repercussions must be if you continue stubbornly to do so [i.e., if you continue stubbornly to escape from facing yourself and your inner conflicts].*

not be able to get away [with escaping your inner conflicts] as others do.*

And this [i.e., having to face your inner conflicts rather than escaping them] may be a very good direction for you because this must, in a way, be a confirmation for you

- where you stand and*
- that there is something wrong with the way you work spiritually [i.e., by your trying to escape your inner conflicts rather than facing them] that you have not seen.*

But if you keep this possibility in sight [i.e., the possibility that there is something wrong with the way you work spiritually that you have not seen], as you

- struggle with yourself and
- overcome your resistance [i.e., your resistance to facing your inner conflicts rather than trying to escape them]

by

- recognizing it [i.e., by recognizing your resistance] and
- praying for help,

the recognition [of your inner conflict responsible for your outer problem] will come.

It must come!

And all the outer

signs

that point to the solution will suddenly

begin to make such clear sense to you;

the answer

- will become so logical and
- will make a complete picture.

And that which you had expected to change somehow, according to your own ideas

from the outside,

will then actually

for the first time

begin to change

from the inside

because you have made a change in your attitude and therefore

you will

- do something different as a result of it [i.e., as a result of your change in attitude],
- take an outer action [based upon your new attitude and new inner ideas].

Once you have discovered this [i.e., discovered that a change in attitude results in changed outer actions and behavior that resolve outer problems], you will see that your free will is very powerful and yet your free will

- alone,
- without the help of
 - God and
 - the guidance He gives you provided you choose the proper attitude, is nothing.

That realization [i.e., the realization that your free will is very powerful and yet depends upon help from God that requires the proper attitude in you] will come to you, but you have to allow it by making a change in yourself [i.e., a change in your inner attitude].

How to begin may be the question for some of you, my dear friends.

Here I say to you:

it is not as difficult as it may seem.

To begin with try to formulate your own [outer] problem in the simplest of terms.

Simplify it; do not make it [i.e., do not make your own outer problem] so complicated.

*Whatever
outer problem is there, try to connect it with your various faults.*

At first sight, this may seem

- impossible and
- entirely unconnected.

But I assure you it [i.e., your outer problem] is not [unconnected with your various faults].

It never is.

*Usually it is not just one fault
that is responsible [for your outer problem], because*

- one fault

is always connected with

- another [fault].

There is a whole nucleus [of faults]; they all interact.

If you can connect

- these various shortcomings

- your problem,

half the battle is won.

11

If you do not as yet clearly realize the connection [between your faults or shortcomings and your problems], if you perhaps

- sense or
- feel

*something,
but cannot quite make the connection [between your faults or shortcomings and your outer problems],*

- sincerely and
- openly

for this realization.

*The answer is then very near,
my friends.*

Whoever is

- really open and
- truly desirous

*to find an answer [to the question concerning the connection between your faults or shortcomings and your outer problems], disregarding
all resistance [to seeing what the connection might be], must receive it [i.e., must receive the answer – the connection],*

- no matter what,
- without exception.

So try to do that [i.e., try to pray sincerely and openly to see this connection], my dear ones.

Every one of you has something with which you are not quite satisfied in your life: perhaps

- a desire that is unfulfilled, or
- some problem
 - big or
 - small.

*Take your faults
and*

- weigh them;
- deliberate on them.

What [aspects of these faults or shortcomings] could be

- directly or
- indirectly

responsible [for your unfulfilled desire or for some problem]?

go a step further.*

each fault is a violation of some spiritual law.*

You may, perhaps,

- present a fault to me in a lecture session;
- *ask me,
and I will show you which spiritual law is broken by this fault.*

And this [i.e., knowing which spiritual law is broken by a particular fault of yours] will then give you the proper meditation how to handle the fault.

	And so you can make further connections [between your faults and your problems] if you start meditating on the violation of the spiritual law by this fault of yours that is responsible for your immediate problem. 12	I can promise you results if you go about it in this way. Then [if you go about it this way, finding the connection between your faults that violate spiritual laws and your problems] this path will not be another form of escape [from what you need to face in yourself]. It [i.e., this path] <ul style="list-style-type: none">• will be reality, as it should be, and• will bring you to the most important thing that this earth-life stands for, namely, facing yourself. Try to remember this; <ul style="list-style-type: none">• do not go over my words superficially.• Reread them carefully;• ask yourself whether you are willing to do it. This may be something new to you. You may have tried <ul style="list-style-type: none">• other things• in other ways, but try it in this way now.

And then, my friends, try to observe

- from a little distance and
 - with a little detachment
- your own reaction*

when you do this [i.e., your reaction when you meditate on the violation of the spiritual law by this fault of yours that is responsible for your immediate problem].

That [i.e., observing your own reaction as you do this meditation work] should be a very interesting phenomenon to you, for it should furnish you with some clue about the conflicting currents in your own soul.

There is

- *one part of you
that truly desires*
 - to advance and
 - to sacrifice
- the comfort
of self-deception.*

But there is also

- *another part of you that struggles
violently against it [i.e., against the discomfort of seeing your faults and violation of spiritual law as the cause of your problems].*

If you can bring yourself to view

these [two] conflicting parts of yourself like an *emotionally uninvolved bystander, for the moment at least,

then you will know*

- what is going on in you and
 - how much these resisting parts of yours are responsible for your
 - trials and
 - tribulations
- in life.*

That [i.e., knowing how much these parts of yours that resist the discomfort of facing your faults are, in fact, responsible for your trials and tribulations in life] is very important.

When you go about following through what I have just advised you, do not take for granted that, because of your

- outer good will and*
- sometimes superficial good intentions,* these resisting parts of yours are something to belittle.

In fact they [i.e., these resisting parts of you that resist the discomfort of facing your faults] have to be reckoned with as a powerful opponent.

You have to face

- that part of yourself too [i.e., the part of yourself that resists facing your faults],*

not merely

- the fault itself.*

You have to realize there is a side in you that does not want what the other side in you wishes.

To recognize this discrepancy [between the two oppositional parts of yourself] is the most important factor of all.

*So far
you have always rationalized the*

- conflicting or
- fighting

part.

You were so affected by this

- negative

side in you [that resists seeing how your attitudes connect to your problems] that the

- good or
- positive

side in you that wants the

- right and
- wise

*thing
was overpowered.*

*You rationalized
this defeat [of the good or positive side in you] with all sorts of other explanations.*

- most intelligent

*of you,
even the*

- wise ones,

became very

- blind and

very

- unintelligent

in this one respect [of not facing yourself and your faults] because of evasion [of your faults and shortcomings, and of your evasion of seeing how they have been the cause of your problems].

	Evasion [of honestly facing yourself and hence evasion of seeing your faults and their connection to your outer problems] is blindness, and blindness is the contrary of <ul style="list-style-type: none">• light or• enlightenment.
14	There are three major parts of the self to be dealt with on this path of purification: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• the conscious mind,• the unconscious, and• the subconscious. The two latter [i.e., the unconscious and subconscious] are not at all the same. The unconscious is that which could be conscious if you would choose to look in the proper direction. You are simply unaware of it [i.e., unaware of your unconscious material] because your inner gaze is pointed to another direction. But the moment you change the direction of your view, <ul style="list-style-type: none">• it [i.e., the unconscious] becomes <ul style="list-style-type: none">• conscious. It [i.e., the unconscious] is <ul style="list-style-type: none">• very much there and• very much on the surface.

	You have to make this distinction [between the conscious, the unconscious, and the subconscious] very clearly.
15	When you begin on this path, as I have explained to you many times, you first deal with the conscious; and I have given you <ul style="list-style-type: none">• various tasks and• advice on<ul style="list-style-type: none">• how to go about it and• how to formulate<ul style="list-style-type: none">• simply,• in a<ul style="list-style-type: none">• concise and• organized manner, that which is already conscious. But before you delve into <ul style="list-style-type: none">• the subconscious, you have to meet <ul style="list-style-type: none">• the unconscious first. What I have so far explained to you in this lecture is the unconscious, and I have shown you here [i.e., here in this lecture] how to deal with it [i.e., how to deal with the unconscious]. Only after you have eliminated some of these problems [in dealing with the unconscious] will we consider how to go into the subconscious layers that are important for you to become aware of.

There may be many images

- that have formed during your early years and
- which affect your life now.

*Some of these images you bring with you from previous incarnations, of course,
but,
due to their existence in your soul, incidents have occurred in your [current] life that brought them to the surface.*

*In the right kind of spiritual progress, everything
that pertains to your growth will be brought into awareness*

- at the proper time and
- in the proper manner.

The borderline between these three divisions –

- conscious,
- unconscious, and
- subconscious –

*cannot always be clearly defined,
but, generally,
you should keep this division in mind, so*

I am giving you this task [i.e., this task of keeping this division in mind], my friends.

*Those of you who have followed through with my advice concerning the first conscious layer, try now
to look at the unconscious, that part*

- which you are unaware of*

but

- which is

Take your immediate

- hardships or*
- problems*

and handle them in the way I have shown you.

17

Now I will mention three main faults in the human character.

These three main faults, from which stem

- directly or*
- indirectly*

all your various individual shortcomings,

are

- self-will,*
- pride, and*
- fear.*

This is very important, my friends, for you to realize.

*You may not think
fear
a fault, but I am telling you that it is;*

if you would have a faultless person, he would be unafraid.

*You all know that
the opposite of • fear
• love.*

*But this knowledge
in itself
will not be sufficient for you to understand why • fear is a • fault.*

First you should understand that these three main faults are connected with one another.

It would hardly be possible for you to have one or two of these faults without the third.

*But what may be possible is that out of the three one or two may be • unconscious, while the third
is
• quite strongly apparent, even to yourself.*

Thus, it is very important

- to write your daily review and
- to check your reactions to all you have felt during the day in response to often seemingly unimportant incidents.

If you try to

- formulate concisely*
an unpleasant inner [emotional] reaction of yours,
always come to the conclusion that most of the time there is an element of fear involved in it [i.e., element of fear in your unpleasant reaction] – fear that perhaps other people
 - do not do what you wish or
 - do not react
according to your liking.

In other words,

- if there is a* strong self-will,
the fear is there
automatically that this
 - self-will will not be gratified, orthat your
 - pride
may be hurt.

*If you had no pride, you would not have to
fear
that it could be hurt.*

no self-will,
you would not have to
fear
that it would not be gratified.*

So you can see the connection [between fear and pride and self-will].

These

- subtle,
- smoldering

fears
are

- infinitely more frequent

and also

- more harmful

than the

- obvious and
- pronounced

18

If you begin to check

- your various impressions of the day and
- your [emotional] reactions,

you can see

- where the element of fear comes in and
- whether it [i.e., whether the fear] is connected with
 - self-will and
 - pride

and to what extent.

So begin to

- observe these inner [emotional] reactions of yours and
- analyze them in these terms [i.e., in terms of fear, self-will, and pride] without trying to change yourself immediately, because
feelings
cannot be changed
by a mere act of will,
but they [i.e., feelings]
will change
if you learn first to observe them.

Get a little distance to yourself and see

- the underground workings of your reactions and
- the behavior
of your various soul currents.

Merely by doing this [i.e., merely by observing your emotional reactions and analyzing them in terms of fear, self-will, and pride] consistently for some time, eventually these

- strong [emotional] reactions and
- inner
 - desires and
 - pressures

will become weaker.

They will not cease right away, but they will

- become weaker and
- occur less frequently.

	Eventually, if you continue to do this [i.e., if you continue to observe your various emotional reactions and analyze them in terms of fear, self-will, and pride] in connection with <ul style="list-style-type: none">• adequate and• pertinent prayer, they [i.e., your various strong emotional reactions] will change and leave you a liberated person.
19	There are two other points I want to make at this time that are not entirely connected with the foregoing. Many of my friends here seriously desire to fulfill a task in God's vineyard. But have you ever asked yourself whether you are truly ready for it [i.e., truly ready to fulfill a task in God's vineyard]? When I ask, are you ready, I do not mean that you have to have a great deal of knowledge, because this intellectual knowledge will be given to you in one way or another so far as it will be necessary [to fulfill the task]. But in other ways, are you really willing to sacrifice when sacrifice is necessary [to fulfill the task]?

*Ask yourself
why you want to do it [i.e., why you want to fulfill a task in God's vineyard].*

*Oh yes,
there is a part of you*

- that is very sincere,
- that wants this out of pure
 - reasons or
 - motives.

*However,
try to discover*

- the other part [of you] that mingles in [with the part of you that is very sincere and pure],
- *the part
that*
 - may not be as ready to pay the necessary price and therefore
 - *merely wants
ego gratification.*

This part wants to fulfill a task mainly

- to receive
 - recognition and
 - appreciation,

or perhaps

- to cut a heroic figure.

*No,
my friends.*

you have to work in very small ways
you are worthy to fulfill such tasks.*

You must not expect that God's world is lenient in this respect [i.e., lenient in giving you big jobs before you have worked in very small jobs].

*It [i.e., God's world] may be lenient
in many other ways, but here [i.e., here in regards to working in God's vineyard] the responsibility is too great [for God's world to give you a task in God's vineyard].*

*If you fulfill a task, you must realize that it no longer
concerns you alone.*

There are other people involved, and if you disappoint them in any way, it will count very much against you.

You have to figure that you will work for many years without any recognition;

really learn to sacrifice.*

must you give up
• your comfort and
• some of your time,
but also
• other things,
my friends.*

These [things you must give up before you take on a task in God's vineyard]

are

- not outer things, for that would be so much easier.

- inner things.

They [i.e., the inner things you must give up before you take on a task in God's vineyard]

comprise most often what is most difficult for you:

giving up

your

- pride,

your

- fear,

your

- self-will,

your

- egotism,

or

- *a particular
• resentment or • resistance to a person.*

20

*To fulfill a task demands a great severity
• with the self
• by the self.*

*It [i.e., to fulfill a task in God's vineyard] means that you have to count,
• not on recognition from any human side for a long time, • but on people who at best • take your help for granted, and at worst • are against you.*

*For a long time you have to take into account that nobody but
• God
and
• yourself will know what you are doing.*

If you are still willing to continue under these circumstances, you will be tested for it.

And if we [in God's world] recognize that you are ready, we may try you out, but it may only be a try – for • many are called but • few are chosen.

21

Here is another bit of advice,
my friends,
on an outer detail.

When you sit
• here [in these trance sessions] or
• at any time when you meditate,

I would advise you

• to be entirely relaxed, and also

• not to sit with your

• legs or

• arms

crossed.

• Hold your hands with the palms upward,

for in a good meditation, whether it is

• a trance session [here] or

• simply a meditation, strong forces

are present.

You are most receptive

in the palms of your hands, and these forces [that are present here in these trance sessions and in simple meditation] can better penetrate into you

through them [i.e., through your open palms].

There may be

• physical healing forces present, or

• some spiritual force that you need, and

• perhaps a force that will help you to overcome some of your psychological problems.

Whatever it is [i.e., whatever the force is, whether a physical healing force, a spiritual force, or a force to help you to overcome your psychological problems], it is important for you.

*However,
if you keep your limbs crossed, you cut off this current.*

This is why I advise you to do it [i.e., to not cross your limbs].

*To sit this way [i.e., with limbs uncrossed and palms up] all the time may seem like a hardship at first, but if you learn to be entirely relaxed,
you will be able to sit like this for hours and will not feel it.*

*You will almost feel your hands lifted;
you will not even have to support them in your lap any more.*

*They will lift
by their own accord, as though
an outer power were at work.*

You will not feel any weight in them.

*If you can succeed in this, without too much forced concentration,
you
should
• be entirely relaxed and should • feel
a very beneficial effect.*

22	And now, my dear ones, I am ready for your questions. QUESTION: May I ask a question from the Bible? What is the true spiritual meaning of the statement, "To those who have, more will be given, and to those who have not, what they have will be taken away?" Does this refer to faith, or what does it refer to?
23	ANSWER: It refers to all spiritual qualities. Take love, for instance. To those who have love, more love will be given, because it is the nature of all pure spiritual qualities to regenerate the same quality from themselves.

*If you have love,
so much more [love]
comes to you,
and you can give it [i.e., give love] to many.*

if*

- *you have
very little of it [i.e., very little love],*
- *and this little [love] is diluted
by impure currents,*

lose the little [love] you have.*

It [i.e., the little love you have] wastes away.

*The same applies to all other divine aspects,
not only to*

- faith or
- love.

So you must break the vicious circle.

*Everything
goes in cycles,
as I always say,
both*

- negative

- positive.

The negative cycles work as long as you are in the state of mind in which you break the respective spiritual law.

*Then [i.e., when in that state of mind in which you break the respective spiritual law] the negative currents in you are so much stronger that you lose
the little positive quality you have.*

*But
if you
• break this negative circle and • set up a positive one, then
the positive quality becomes inexhaustible.*

*The more
you give then,
the more
will come out of you.*

24

QUESTION:
It means putting yourself into the great cycle of love?

ANSWER:
Yes.

25	QUESTION: I read in the papers about the Pope objecting to to delving into the subconscious, that it [i.e., that delving into the subconscious] can be harmful.
26	ANSWER: Well, it [i.e., delving into the subconscious] can be harmful if it is done by people who do not understand how to handle it. Certainly. A lot of harm has been done, also by qualified doctors. I have mentioned that too. If the subconscious is taken apart without the realization of <ul style="list-style-type: none">• the existence of spiritual law and• certain spiritual<ul style="list-style-type: none">• facts and• truths, a person can have a breakdown. It is as though you took a machine apart and you do not know how to put it together again.

can be the most • useful, the most • wonderful thing, but it can also be a very dangerous thing, as it is true
with so many other things.*

*Take, for instance,
mediumship:*

*it [i.e., mediumship] can be
• the most precious jewel, and [yet] it can be • very harmful.*

It is the same here [i.e., delving into the subconscious can be the most precious jewel, and yet it can be very harmful].

It just depends on how it is done.

27

QUESTION:
*It seems that so many people have a different interpretation of the word
"love."*

Can you give us an interpretation?

What qualities does a person have to have in order to • give it [i.e., give love] and • receive it [i.e., receive love]?

28	ANSWER: I think I can answer this best in a very short sentence: real love must be entirely free of <ul style="list-style-type: none">• ego,• pride,• vanity, and• self-will. That is the answer. So you will realize that there are few human beings indeed who are capable of divine love. Does that answer your question? QUESTIONER: Yes, thank you.
29	QUESTION: I would like to know about a departed friend of mine. I keep thinking about him and I wondered if there was any meaning in this. Why do I keep thinking of him?
30	ANSWER: I will need a little time. Just a moment. ...

because
he is very often near you.*

near you.*

*He wants help
and
you can help him,
not only
• by praying for him,
but also
• by teaching him certain things.*

*Think about • him,
• his life,
• his views, and compare this with the spiritual knowledge you are gaining now, and see where this knowledge [you are gaining now] may be missing in him.*

Because of that [i.e., because this spiritual knowledge may be missing in him], he may be in a certain need.

*And since
• there is a bond between you – and
• he trusts you –
you are the one who could help him.*

You could do this by teaching him in thought.

But first think what lack of spiritual knowledge may be a hindrance for him now, then [i.e., when you understand what his specific lack of spiritual knowledge is, a lack of knowledge that is hindering his current development] you will be able to teach him [in this area of his specific spiritual need].

Perhaps one day,
all of a sudden,
a thought will be in you in the form of a question.

So you may be inspired by him and thus have a sort of a conversation with him.

That [conversation with him] will be very useful [to him].

31

QUESTION: I don't quite understand how I can help him, though.

As I said,
if you think about his views, you will undoubtedly realize that he had some wrong ideas about spiritual truth.

This lack [of spiritual truth] is a hindrance to him now.

This is what you can teach him by having a conversation with him in thought [and thereby imparting to him spiritual truth in this area where he lacks truth].

32

QUESTIONER:

Do I have to keep thinking of him?

ANSWER:

You do not have to do that constantly.

It is sufficient for you to figure out where his lack of spiritual truth must be a hindrance to him now.

You have known him, after all, and you have known some of his

- opinions,*

- attitudes,*

*that may indicate
his*

- spiritual foundation.*

*That will give you a clue
where he has his difficulties.*

*And then take every day five minutes,
whenever you want to,
talk to him
about these things, just as though he were in the flesh.*

You do not have to do it in a loud voice.

Explain certain things that you are learning that he may not believe as yet.

*That will help him
because*

- he trusts you and*
- he is more likely to accept something from*

- you
than from*
- certain other people he has access to,
also in the spiritual world.*

33

Well, my friends, this is enough for this evening.

And so I am leaving you with the Lord's blessings for each one of you.

May He give you

- the strength and*
- the courage and*
- the light*

- to face yourself,*
- to be open,*

so as to redirect your life and put it [i.e., put your life] into the proper channel, so that you can grow in harmony.

Never feel • lonely or
• alone, because God is
• here and • everywhere.

And He loves
each one of you very much.

Go
in
• joy
in • peace.

Be in God!
