Pathwork Lecture 38: Images

1996 Edition, Original Given October 24, 1958

This lecture is given in an expanded poetic format, what I call a Devotional Format of the lecture, and in that sense this is my interpretation of the intent of the lecture. I may have interpreted portions differently from you, and I ask you to ponder the words for your own interpretation. I did this Devotional Format so I can take the words into my heart, phrase by phrase, much as I would in reading poetry – that is, devotionally.

The blessings to me in developing this format have been truly profound, and my wish is that this Devotional Format will be a blessing to others. I invite you to slowly read and ponder this format of the text – with an open heart to experience the Guide's Presence and Love emerging from among the words such that the wisdom comes to LIVE you.

For clarity: The original text is in bold and italicized. [My adds of commentary/clarification/interpretation are in brackets, italicized, and not bolded.] To learn more of my Devotional Format and see the lectures I have done in this way, go to https://www.garyvollbracht.com/pathwork-lectures/pathwork-lectures-devotional-format/

| 03 | Greetings in the name of the Lord. |
| | Blessed is this hour [i.e., Blessed is this time we now spend together in this lecture]. |
| | Blessings for all of you, my dear friends. |
| | Most of you have made serious efforts on your path of development, |
| | and the spirit world has decided that you are ready for stronger medicine. |
| | So I shall take this work a step further. |

| 04 | |
|----|---|
| | There comes a point when |
| | your struggle on the path |
| | becomes |
| | a bit discouraging. |
| | You have begun to recognize |
| | your faults; |
| | |
| | you are full of |
| | good intentions |
| | to overcome them [i.e., to overcome your faults]; |
| | and you may even have |
| | succeeded [i.e., succeeded in overcoming some of your faults] |
| | in a small measure. |
| | in u smuti medsure. |
| | You recognize |
| | some of your |
| | wrong attitudes, and |
| | you wish to change them |
| | with all the willpower |
| | at your disposal. |
| | Yet you must |
| | face the fact |
| | that |
| | the outer willpower |
| | is insufficient |
| | to do so [i.e., the outer willpower is insufficient to change the |
| | wrong attitudes you now recognize |
| | and strongly want to change]. |
| | |
| | No matter |
| | how hard you try, |
| | you seem |
| | unable to make changes, and |
| | you ask yourself |
| | why. |
| | wity. |
| | |
| | |

| | Ignorant of the causes behind this inability [i.e., behind this inability to change the wrong attitudes you now recognize and strongly want to change], you are often inclined to give up altogether, and you tell yourself that it is useless to try [i.e., useless to try to change the wrong |
|-----|---|
| | attitudes you now recognize]. |
| | And that [i.e., And giving up trying to change the wrong attitudes you now recognize] is where your gravest mistake lies. |
| 0.5 | is where your gravesi mistake ties. |
| 05 | My dear friends, it is important to realize that over the course of a lifetime, usually even in • earliest childhood or • infancy, every personality forms certain impressions due to • environmental influences or to • sudden, • unexpected experiences. |

| | These |
|----|---|
| | impressions or | | | • attitudes |
| | usually take the form of |
| | conclusions |
| | in the mind of the person. |
| | |
| | Most of the time |
| | these conclusions |
| | are |
| | wrong. |
| | You |
| | • see and |
| | • experience |
| | something unfortunate, |
| | one of the unavoidable hardships of life, |
| | and you then make generalizations |
| | from them [i.e., you generalize one of the unavoidable hardships of life]. |
| | from them [i.e., you generalize one of the unavolation naraships of tije]. |
| | These generalizations |
| | later establish themselves |
| | as preconceived ideas. |
| 06 | |
| | The conclusions |
| | are |
| | • not thought out; |
| | nath on them (i.e. wather the concursit of conclusions from one of |
| | rather they [i.e., rather, the generalized conclusions from one of the unavoidable hardships of life] |
| | are |
| | • emotional reactions, |
| | • general attitudes toward life. |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |

07 You might contend that people can also have • positive, • healthy images engraved on their soul. That [i.e., That people can also have positive, healthy images engraved on their soul] is seldom true because in the absence of a wrong image, all • thoughts and • feelings are • fluctuating, • dynamic and • relaxed: They [i.e., In the absence of a wrong image all thoughts and feelings] are • flexible. The whole universe is suffused with a number of divine forces. • Thoughts, • feelings, and • attitudes that are unconnected with an image flow harmoniously with the divine currents, adapting themselves spontaneously to your immediate needs.

| | But |
|----|---|
| | the forms of |
| | the thought/feelings |
| | emanating from |
| | wrong images |
| | are |
| | • static and |
| | • congested. |
| | They [i.e., The forms of the thought/feelings emanating from wrong images] do not "give" |
| | in accordance with |
| | changing circumstances. |
| | Thus, |
| | they [i.e., Thus the forms of the thought/feelings emanating from wrong images] create |
| | disorder. |
| | The pure currents |
| | flowing |
| | through |
| | a human soul |
| | become |
| | • disturbed and |
| | • distorted. |
| | A short circuit is established. |
| 08 | |
| | This is the way |
| | • we in the spirit world |
| | see images. |
| | The way |
| | • you [i.e., The way you humans in the earth sphere] |
| | see and feel them [i.e., The way you humans see and feel images] |
| | is through |
| | • unhappiness, |
| | • anxiety, and | | | • puzzlement |
| | over many |
| | apparently |
| | inexplicable things in your life. |
| | incaptication mings in your aje. |

| | For instance, • your inability to change what you wish to change or • certain kinds of events that seem to reoccur regularly without an obvious reason are just two examples [i.e., two examples of how you humans experience images]. |
|----|--|
| | There are many more [i.e., There are many more examples of how you humans experience images]. |
| 09 | The wrong conclusions that form an image are drawn from • ignorance and • half-knowledge and thus [i.e., thus since they are drawn from ignorance and half- knowledge of the still immature developing consciousness] they [i.e., the wrong conclusions] cannot remain in the conscious mind. |
| | As the personality grows up, your • intellectual knowledge [i.e., your intellectual knowledge develops, becomes increasingly conscious, and more and more] contradicts your • emotional "knowledge." |
| | You therefore [i.e., Because as you mature your consciousness becomes more and more filled with intellectual knowledge that contradicts your immature emotional "knowledge," you push down the emotional knowledge until it [i.e., until your undeveloped and immature emotional knowledge] disappears from consciousness. |

| | The more emotional knowledge |
|----|---|
| | is hidden [i.e., is hidden in the unconscious], |
| | the more |
| | potent |
| | the image |
| | becomes. |
| 10 | |
| | How can you be sure |
| | that such images |
| | exist in you? |
| | In the first place, |
| | your inability |
| | to overcome certain faults, |
| | no matter |
| | how much you want to, |
| | indicates that |
| | an image exists. |
| | I have sometimes mentioned that |
| | people love |
| | some of their faults. |
| | • How |
| | and |
| | • why |
| | would they love them [i.e., How and why would they love some of their faults]? |
| | For the simple reason that |
| | according to the image, |
| | certain faults |
| | seem |
| | necessary |
| | as |
| | • a defense, |
| | • a protective measure. |
| | |
| | |

| | This [i.e., That certain faults are necessary as a defense, a protective measure], |
|----|---|
| | of course, is | | | • unconscious |
| | reasoning. |
| | reusoning. |
| | The |
| | • conscious |
| | effort |
| | to overcome the fault |
| | remains fruitless |
| | because |
| | • the roots of the image |
| | are unconscious |
| | and |
| | • the whole inner reasoning process |
| | is hidden from |
| | the intellect. |
| | ווכ וווכווכנו. |
| | And it will remain so [i.e., And the whole inner reasoning |
| | process will remain hidden from the intellect] |
| | until |
| | the image is recognized. |
| | |
| 11 | Another indication of an image |
| | Another indication of an image |
| | is the reputition of |
| | the repetition of |
| | certain incidents in one's life. |

| | An image |
|----|---|
| | always |
| | forms some sort of pattern, |
| | whether it is |
| | • a behavior pattern |
| | in response to |
| | certain occasions, |
| | or [i.e., or it is a pattern in] |
| | events that seem to happen to you |
| | without your doing anything |
| | to invite them [i.e., without your doing anything |
| | to invite the events]. |
| | In fact, |
| | consciously |
| | you may fervently wish for |
| | the very opposite of |
| | your image. |
| | But the |
| | • conscious desire |
| | is the weaker of two impulses, |
| | since |
| | • the unconscious |
| | is always stronger [i.e., since the unconscious desire |
| | of your emotional "reasoning" in the image |
| | is always stronger than the conscious desire |
| | you may fervently wish for in your intellect]. |
| 12 | |
| | The unconscious |
| | does not realize |
| | that the second s |

| | prohibits |

| | Often you do not notice |
| | the repetitive pattern in your life, my friends. |
| | |
| | You pass over |
| | the |
| | obvious. |
| | You still keep assuming |
| | that |
| | • certain occurrences |
| | are due to coincidence |
| | or that |
| | • some arbitrary fate |
| | is testing you, |
| | or that |
| | • other people are responsible for |
| | your repeated mishaps. |
| | your repeated misnaps. |
| | You therefore |
| | pay much more attention to |
| | • the slight variations of each incident |
| | than to |
| | • the common denominator underlying them. |
| | the common achomitator anacriging them. |
| 14 | |
| | Most psychologists |
| | have verified this process. |
| | |
| | But what they have often |
| | failed to realize |
| | is that images |
| | seldom form |
| | in this life, |
| | no matter how early they began. |

Most of the time an image is carried over from one lifetime to another. That is why certain incidents do not form an image in people who are free of a particular conflict. Yet they [i.e., Yet these very same incidents or conditions] will form one [i.e., will form an image] in a person's soul who has brought that conflict into this life. Although it is essential to find • the image and • its origin in the present life to adequately dissolve it, there are still cases where the knowledge of all the pertinent facts would be very useful to the therapist. In other words, an image can often be successfully treated without the knowledge of its origin in a previous life. But there are cases where the knowledge of the carry-over principle would be invaluable.

| In an earlier lecture [see Lecture 34 – Preparation for Reincarnation, originally given July 25, 1958] |
| I explained |
| • how an entity |
| is prepared for life on earth; |
| • how plans |
| for what should be |
| accomplished and |
| • overcome |
| in the next incarnation |
| are made according to |
| previous existences; |
| • how the subtle bodies |
| surrounding |
| the physical vehicle of the incarnate being |
| are prepared |
| so that |
| the conflicts |
| should bring |
| the inner problems |
| of the particular person |
| to the surface. |
| This [i.e., The plans for what should be accomplished and overcome in the next |
| lifetime and corresponding conflicts that should manifest to bring |
| inner problems to the surface so that they can be seen and overcome |
| is the basis on which |
| • families and |
| • other life circumstances |
| are chosen. |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |
| |

When an image carries over from previous lives, the incarnation takes place in an environment where provocations to that image are bound to occur, perhaps in response to similar images in • the parents or • others around the growing child. That [i.e., Being born in an environment where provocations to that image are bound to occur, perhaps in response to similar images in the parents or in others around the growing child] is how the image brings out a problem; and only if something becomes a problem will the person • pay attention to it [i.e., will the person pay attention to the image] instead of • looking away [i.e., instead of looking away from the image]. If the image is ignored, circumstances will be much more difficult in the following life on earth until the conflicts become so overwhelming that outside factors can no longer be blamed for the pain inflicted by • the wrong conclusions and misconceptions of the image.

| | This [i.e., The pain due to wrong conclusions and misconception of the |
|----|--|
| | image becoming so overwhelming that outside factors can no longer be blamed for the overwhelming pain] |
| | is when the person |
| | begins |
| | to turn |
| | • upward and |
| | • inward. |
| 16 | |
| | The only solution |
| | to your life's problems |
| | is to make your |
| | images |
| | conscious. |
| | I can give you advice on how to begin, |
| | but you will not be able to accomplish it [i.e., you will not be able |
| | to make your images conscious] |
| | completely by yourself. |
| | You will need help. |
| | If you are |
| | serious |
| | in your desire to |
| | • find and |
| | • dissolve |
| | the images in your soul – |
| | for your life is |
| | not |
| | without problems – |
| | then pray to God. |
| | He will |
| | • give you further guidance and |
| | lead you to the proper person |
| | with whom |
| | you can cooperate |
| | in your quest to find your images. |

17 This work [i.e., This work of finding and dissolving images] requires, among other things, humility, which as we all know is a very important asset for your spiritual development. Those who are constantly reluctant to work with another person lack humility, even if only in this one respect [i.e., lack humility, if only in respect to being reluctant to work with another person to help one find and dissolve one's images]. Perhaps you also fear to face your images. But how shortsighted this is [i.e., But how shortsighted it is not to face your images], my friends! It is this very image [i.e., It is this very image, that is, the image that finding, facing and dissolving images is dangerous and should be avoided] that causes you so much trouble, although unconsciously you do not think so [i.e., although unconsciously you do NOT think this image, the image that finding, facing and dissolving images should be avoided, is causing you so much trouble]. Unconsciously you are convinced that your images protect you [i.e., Unconsciously you are convinced that your images protect you and should be kept in placed, not dissolved].

|----|---|
| | Let me give you a very primitive example: |
| | A child has taken a bath; |
| | the water was boiling hot |
| | and therefore |
| | has injured the child. |
| | This child |
| | may come to the conclusion |
| | that |
| | taking baths |
| | is dangerous. |
| | The child |
| | will never take another bath |
| | if it can avoid it. |
| | Out of this misconception [i.e., Out of this misconception |
| | that taking baths is dangerous] |
| | conflicts |
| | will arise. |
| | In youth |
| | the parents |
| | force the child |
| | to take a bath, |
| | and every time this happens |
| | the child |
| | will go through |
| | • untold and |
| | • quite unnecessary |
| | misery. |

| Either the person will actually follow the inner conclusion [i.e., follow the wrong conclusion that taking a bath is dangerous], which is no longer conscious, or perhaps [i.e., or perhaps the person] may find more rational explanations [i.e., find more rational explan for why taking a bath is dangerous and should be ar But the uncleanliness [i.e., But the uncleanliness that results from not taking will create new conflicts: rejection from others will set in motion a new chain reaction. | | such "unreasonable" reactions |
| | and |
| | • the anxiety connected with them [i.e., and the anxiety connected with such |
| | "unreasonable" reactions and symptoms in connection with bathing] |
| | will present difficulties |
| | that cannot be overcome |
| | unless |
| | the image is found. |
| 19 | Now, this is a very primitive example. |
| | Most of the time |
| | the emotional reactions [i.e., emotional reactions to childhood events] |
| | are much more |
| | • subtle and |
| | • complicated. |
| | • complicalea. |
| | I cannot stress enough |
| | that you are no longer aware of |
| | the original reasoning |
| | behind |
| | your conclusions [i.e., from the previous example, |
| | you are no longer aware of the original reasoning |
| | behind your conclusion that bathing is dangerous]. |
| | If you were confronted with |
| | the contents of your soul [i.e., from this example, confronted with your soul's |
| | conclusion that bathing is dangerous], |
| | • you would laugh. |
| | • You would say that |
| | they [i.e., the contents of your soul – here "bathing is dangerous"] |
| | are |
| | • entirely untrue, |
| | • a wild fantasy. |
| | - u muu jumusy. |

| | It is also important to understand |
|----|---|
| | that |
| | the chain reaction of consequences |
| | resulting from |
| | the original impression [i.e., from the example, that the chain |
| | reaction of consequences resulting from the |
| | original impression that "bathing is dangerous"] |
| | creates |
| | • mishaps and |
| | • hardships. |
| | These [i.e., These mishaps and hardships arising from the chain reaction of consequences resulting from the original impression – from the example, the original impression that "bathing is dangerous"] |
| | will be |
| | even harder for you to understand because |
| | your unconscious is so convinced |
| | that |
| | |
| | avoiding certain • actions and |
| | • actions and • reactions |
| | [i.e., from the example, avoiding certain actions and reactions connected with bathing] |
| | actions and reactions connected with bathing] |
| | will protect you against |
| | the hurts of life. |
| 20 | |
| | Now how can you find |
| | your personal images? |
| | Not |
| | by trying to |
| | change |
| | the symptoms, |
| | whatever they may be, |
| | but rather |
| | by working with them [i.e., by working with the symptoms arising from your images] . |
| | |

| 21 | |
|----|--------------------------------------|
| | Start searching for the image |
| | by |
| | • thinking back on your life |
| | and |
| | • finding |
| | all |
| | the problems. |
| | Write them down. |
| | Include problems of all sorts. |
| | You cannot do this |
| | unless |
| | you take the trouble |
| | to put them down |
| | concisely |
| | in black and white. |
| | If you merely |
| | think about them, |
| | you will not have |
| | the overview |
| | necessary for |
| | comparison. |
| 22 | |
| | The written work |
| | is essential. |
| | It [i.e., The written work] |
| | is certainly not too much to ask. |
| | You do not have to do it in one day. |
| | Take your time, |
| | even if it takes |
| | a few months. |
| | |
| | |
| | |

| | Then, |
|----|--|
| | when you have all the |
| | • big |
| | and |
| | • small |
| | troubles |
| | in front of your eyes, |
| | even the most |
| | nonsensical and |
| | • insignificant |
| | ones, |
| | start to look for |
| | the common denominator. |
| | You will find |
| | one common denominator [i.e., You will fine one common denominator behind all your big and small troubles and problems] |
| | in most instances, and sometimes |
| | even more than one [i.e., even more than one common denominator]. |
| 23 | |
| | I do |
| | not |
| | say that a difficulty |
| | cannot occur |
| | • only once in your life, |
| | • independent of |
| | any inner image. |
| | That is possible. |
| | This, too, [i.e., A difficulty occurring only once in your life, independent of any inner image, too,] |
| | is based on |
| | cause and effect |
| | as everything in the universe is, |
| | but it |
| | may not |
| | be connected with |
| | your image. |

| | But be careful, my friends. |
|----|---|
| | Do not put an occurrence aside superficially, |
| | assuming it is unconnected with |
| | your personal image |
| | merely because it appears that way [i.e., merely because it appears |
| | that an occurrence is unconnected with your personal image] |
| | at first sight. |
| | It is |
| | • very possible, |
| | and even |
| | • probable, |
| | that there are |
| | no |
| | unconnected happenings in your life. |
| | All |
| | unpleasant experiences |
| | are probably connected with |
| | your image |
| | at least in some way. |
| 24 | |
| | The common denominator [i.e., The common denominator of your problems, |
| | difficulties and unpleasant experiences] |
| | may not be easy to find. |
| | Only after |
| | you have thoughtfully grasped |
| | your image |
| | will you be in a position to judge |
| | which of your experiences, if any, |
| | have something to do with it [i.e., have something to do with |
| | your image]. |
| | Until then [i.e., Until you have thoughtfully grasped your image and are in a position to judge which, if any, of your experiences have something to do with your image] |
| | you must refrain from |
| | final judgments about |
| | the events in your life. |

In • meditation, in • serious self-probing, in checking your emotional reactions about the • past and • present, and through • prayer, you will find, after a long and • arduous search. the common denominator. It [i.e., The common denominator of your problems, difficulties, and unpleasant experiences] is pride. Your self-will says: "I do not want • the risk of life; I do not want the • pain of life; therefore, I draw this conclusion [i.e., I draw this conclusion that I must avoid the pain or risk of life] which seems to safeguard me against it [i.e., seems to safeguard me from LIFE, with its pains and risks]." In fact, it [i.e., In fact, the conclusion that I must avoid risk the pain of life] is not a safeguard, for it [i.e., for trying to avoid the inherent pain and difficulties of life] will bring you the very trouble [i.e., the very troubles, difficulties, and pains of life] you are trying to escape from, since life cannot be cheated [i.e., you cannot escape the troubles, difficulties, and pains that are inevitable and inherent in life].

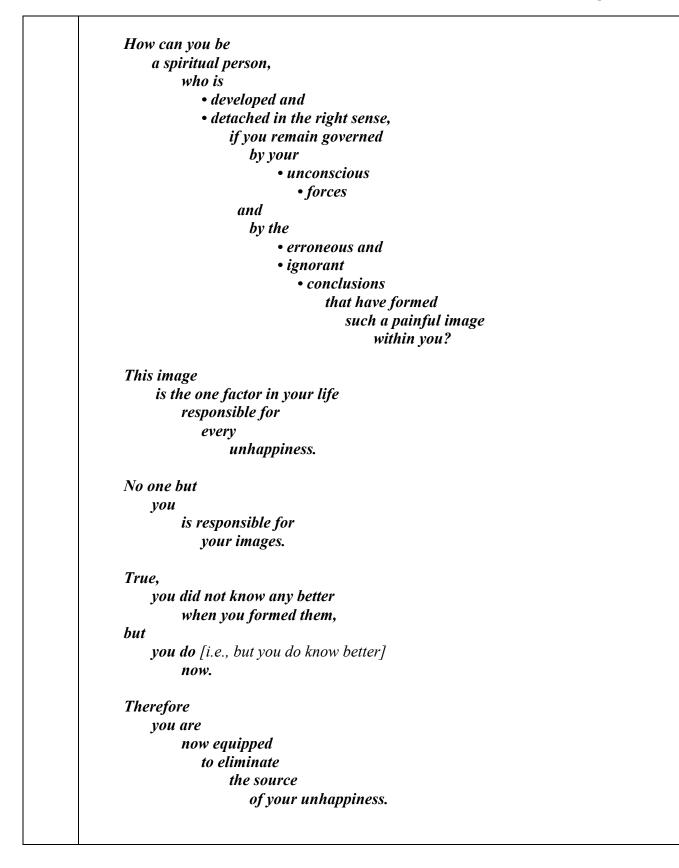

| | This [i.e., This not being allowed to cheat life by trying to AVOID life's inherent problems, difficulties and pains rather than growing from and through them] is the merciful law of God. |
|----|---|
| | Otherwise [i.e., If you were allowed to cheat life by avoiding life's inherent problems, difficulties and pains rather than growing through them] you could |
| | never emerge from |
| | the misery of the |
| | • lower, • darker |
| | planes of consciousness. |
| 25 | |
| | Only when you |
| | • begin to |
| | face your own wrong conclusions and |
| | • fears |
| | and |
| | • are ready to |
| | accept life |
| | for what it is |
| | will you be able to |

| | It is a |

In fact, the very same quality that makes you resist [i.e., the quality that makes you resist doing this work of finding the common denominator of all your troubles and problems and praying to find a person to help you explore your unconscious] is the one that • created the image in the first place without your knowing it and • will continue to create untold misery for you, counteracting vour conscious wishes. Indeed. your resistance [i.e., your resistance to this work of finding the common denominator of all your troubles and problems and praying to find a person to help you explore your unconscious] causes you to lose what could be rightfully yours. So have enough wisdom to • see through your resistance and to • evaluate it for what it is worth. Do not let yourself be governed by it [i.e., Do not let yourself be governed by your resistance].

| | "How can I be responsible for |

If you do not have the courage to delve into • your unconscious, face • your image, dissolve • it [i.e., dissolve your image], and thus make • a new person out of yourself, • you will never be • free in this life. • You will always be • chained and • bound. The price for freedom is the • courage and • humility to face up to things. When you have taken all the necessary steps, the victory of freedom brings such joy that nothing can mar your happiness. Furthermore, you can be quite sure that the image you do not dissolve in this life will have to be dissolved in a future one.

| 31 | |
|----|--|
| | This [i.e., That the image you do not dissolve in this life |
| | will have to be dissolved in a future one] |
| | should not be taken as |
| | a threat, my friends. |
| | It [i.e., That the image you do not dissolve in this life |
| | will have to be dissolved in a future one] |
| | is just |
| | a logical consequence. |
| | a logical consequence. |
| | Besides, |
| | how can anything be a threat |
| | that liberates you |
| | from your own chains? |
| | You must not take it that way [i.e., You must not take as a threat the fact that the |
| | image you do not dissolve in this life will have to be dissolved in a future one]. |
| | |
| | You must merely see realistically |
| | that |
| | the sooner you find your images |
| | of your own accord – |
| | and not [i.e., and do not wait so that you find your images |
| | only when and] because your images keep acquiring |
| | new twists so that life is becoming too much for you – |
| | the easier |
| | your life will become. |
| | That you may safely believe. |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |

| 32 | You may say in certain moments, |
|----|---|
| | "All this about being born again |
| | with the same problems |
| | may be speculation. |
| | There may not be another life after all. |
| | Why should I go through all the trouble now?" |
| | But I say to you |
| | that |
| | you should undertake this work |
| | for the sake of |
| | this life, |
| | for it is |
| | • never too late |
| | and |
| | • always well worth the effort! |
| | Your remaining years |
| | will mean |
| | a different kind of life: |
| | you will be |
| | • free |
| | instead of |
| | • chained. |
| 33 | |
| | Even those |
| | who have no more doubts about |
| | the reality of reincarnation |
| | should consider this [i.e., should consider your reincarnation] |
| | as an additional incentive [i.e., as an additional incentive to |
| | find and dissolve your images in this lifetime]. |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |

| | Actually, |
|----|--|
| | it would be a very good exercise in meditation |
| | to think about |
| | what your next karma may be. |
| | You are always |
| | extremely concerned with |
| | your |
| | previous |
| | incarnations. |
| | It might be |
| | even more beneficial |
| | to be concerned with |
| | your next one [i.e., be concerned with your NEXT incarnation]. |
| | With |
| | some |
| | spiritual knowledge and |
| | some |
| | intuition about yourself, |
| | you shall be able to reap more benefits. |
| 34 | |
| | In addition, |
| | by finding your image, |
| | even to some degree, |
| | you may form a pretty accurate idea |
| | of |
| | • what you have yet to fulfill |
| | and |
| | • what your next life may be. |
| | Consider |
| | what conditions you require |
| | to resolve your conflicts |
| | in order to fulfill |
| | your life task. |
| | Of course, |
| | the actual next existence |
| | will depend on your development |
| | during the rest of this life, too. |

| 35 | |
|----|---|
| | Do not forget |
| | that |
| | • the law of cause and effect or |
| | • the law of karma |
| | specifies |
| | that people are always given the chance |
| | to solve their problems |
| | in the easiest circumstances possible. |
| | When not enough |
| | • courage and |
| | • willpower |
| | are mustered |
| | in easy circumstances, |
| | the life that follows |
| | must necessarily be |
| | a little more difficult. |
| | And if again the |
| | • courage, |
| | • humility, and |
| | • willpower |
| | are not mustered, |
| | the life afterward |
| | will be more difficult still. | | | Ultimately, |
| | when the going gets |
| | really hard, |
| | you will be |
| | forced to |
| | • face your troubles |
| | instead of |
| | • fleeing them. |
| | So by law |
| | your lives become |
| | increasingly difficult. |
| | You violate divine law |
| | when you |
| | • escape from yourself |
| | instead of |
| | • facing yourself. |

| This [i.e., The fact that when you escape from yourself instead of facing yourself you |
|--|
| violate divine law and thereby make your lives increasingly difficult] |
| should also bring into clearer focus |
| a controversial subject |
| |
| among people interested in the spiritual life. |
| People are | | • uncertain and |
| • confused |
| about how to react to |
| • tests, |
| • trials, and |
| • hardships. |
| • nurusnips. |
| One school of thought |
| claims |
| • God does not send tests. |
| • God is love; |
| how could He |
| want |
| us to be |
| unhappy? |
| This is |
| true, my friends [i.e., God does NOT send tests, God is love, |
| and God wants us to be happy]. |
| The other school of thought |
| says that |
| • it is necessary that we experience tests |
| |
| and therefore |
| they are God's will. |
| • As tests come, |
| we should |
| • accept them in humility |
| and thus |
| • prove our worthiness of God's |
| • mercy and |
| • bliss. |
| This is |
| equally correct, my friends [i.e., tests ARE necessary and thus are |
| God's will – we should accept tests in humility and thus |
| prove our worthiness of God's mercy and bliss]. |
| prove our worniness of Gou s mercy und oussj. |

| 37 | |
|----|---|
| | But |
| | the full truth lies in |
| | • the middle, |
| | or rather in |
| | an extension of these two concepts. |
| | God has |
| | • made perfect laws |
| | and A given His children free will |
| | • given His children free will. |
| | If the laws |
| | could not be violated, |
| | then free will |
| | would not exist. |
| | The perfection of the law |
| | is that |
| | the long-term remedy |
| | is an effect of |
| | these very violations. |
| | For |
| | the more you twist these laws, |
| | • consciously |
| | 0ľ |
| | • unconsciously, |
| | |
| | the more they |
| | work against |
| | your interests, until |
| | you finally reach a point |
| | where you |
| | • cannot twist them further |
| | and |
| | • must eventually |
| | change the direction of your will. |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |

| 38 | |
|----|---|
| | It is very true |
| | that to take a test |
| | in a spirit of humility |
| | with the attitude of |
| | "Father, Thy will be done" |
| | is the right thing. |
| | But this [i.e., But taking a test in a spirit of humility with the attitude of "Father, Thy will be done"] |
| | is not enough |
| | if you want to attain |
| | a higher level. |
| | |
| | The |
| | highest |
| | and the |
| | • best |
| | |
| | you can do |
| | is |
| | not only to |
| | • take the test |
| | but also to |
| | • search for your images. |
| 39 | |
| 57 | Your |
| | unconscious wrong conclusions |
| | are directly responsible for |
| | the tests you are experiencing at any given time. |
| | |
| | And in order to |
| | find your images, |
| | you cannot |
| | be impatient with yourself, |
| | for it is |
| | |
| | utterly impossible to |
| | • find, |
| | • comprehend, and |
| | • dissolve |
| | an image |
| | in a short time. |
| | |

It [i.e., Finding, comprehending, and dissolving an image]
    is a long drawn-out process.
And even after you have understood your images,
the reeducation of your emotions, long-conditioned to follow a distortion, takes
                • time.
                • effort, and
                • patience.
So, as one school of thought says,
    • patience and • humility
         are absolutely necessary.
You may revolt against unhappiness, vet when you realize that • you, not • God
          and
            • the fates,
                are to blame [i.e., YOU, and NOT God and the fates are to blame for your unhappiness],
    • your revolt may turn against yourself
 and
    • you thus will also become impatient with yourself.
```

| | With such currents [i.e., With such negative currents of impatience and |
|----|---|
| | turning against yourself for causing your own unhappiness], |
| | you will |
| | never succeed in |
| | • finding and |
| | • dissolving |
| | your image. |
| | [In order to find and dissolve your image] |
| | You must be in |
| | a relaxed state of mind. |
| | Such a state of mind [i.e., Such a relaxed state of mind] |
| | can be yours |
| | if you |
| | • understand |
| | and |
| | • accept |
| | the length of the search. |
| | Once you accept |
| | your inability |
| | to become perfect |
| | quickly, |
| | you humbly accept |
| | temporary |
| | unhappiness. |
| 40 | |
| | There is a |
| | vast difference |
| | between |
| | resigning yourself to |
| | unhappiness |
| | without understanding why, |
| | and |
| | • the course I have shown you here: |
| | acceptance [i.e., acceptance of |
| | your temporary unhappiness]. |
| | |
| | |
| | |

| 41 | |
|----|--|
| | Purification |
| | is more than that [i.e., Purification is more than |
| | merely listing your faults and then attempting to overcome them]. |
| | You cannot become |
| | purified |
| | unless |
| | you |
| | • understand and |
| | • control |
| | your own unconscious. |
| | And that [i.e., And coming to understand and control your own unconscious] |
| | is a long journey. |
| | V 7 V 11 V 1 1 |
| | You will receive help |
| | if you are willing |
| | to embark on this journey, however. |
| | And you should understand |
| | that |
| | you are doing this work |
| | for |
| | • God |
| | and |
| | for |
| | • yourself. |
| | What God |
| | wants for you |
| | must be |
| | your own best interest, |
| | so you are |
| | not really |
| | making a sacrifice to God, |
| | since |
| | • God |
| | and |
| | • the true you |
| | are |
| | one! |
| | one: |
| | Think about that [i.e., Think about the fact that God and the true you are one], |
| | my friends! |

| 42 | |
|----|--|
| | Some people |
| | are so selfish |
| | that they do not want to do |
| | anything for God |
| | that inconveniences them. |
| | At the same time, |
| | they [i.e., At the same time, some people who are so selfish that they |
| | do not want to do anything for God that inconveniences them] |
| | are blind enough |
| | to believe that what God wants for them |
| | is contrary to |
| | their own happiness. |
| | 11 |
| | Others |
| | are willing to sacrifice |
| | anything |
| | for God – |
| | although |
| | without understanding their images |
| | they will |
| | never |
| | truly succeed [i.e. , will not feel truly happy and |
| | fulfilled by their willingness to sacrifice |
| | anything at all out of their devotion to God]. |
| | |
| | The more happiness |
| | results from their sacrifices, |
| | the worse |
| | their guilt becomes |
| | until |
| | true |
| | inner |
| | happiness |
| | is conceived. |

| | QUESTION: |
| | You mentioned |
| | • willpower and |
| | • courage |
| | twice tonight. |
| | Are the batteries of both |
| | recharged |
| | by prayer? |
| | |
| 44 | |
| | ANSWER: |
| | Of course! |
| | If you pray |
| | |
| | specifically |
| | for |
| | • willpower and |
| | • courage |
| | for a good purpose, |
| | as outlined in this lecture [i.e., for the good purpose of finding, |
| | accepting, and dissolving your images], |
| | the prayer |
| | will certainly be answered. |
| | |
| | If you pray for |
| | something else, |
| | you will get |
| | something else, |
| | provided |
| | • |
| | it [i.e. , provided that "something else"] |
| | is |
| | • good and |
| | • according to law. |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |

| | It is so very important |
|----|---|
| | to know |
| | what to pray for |
| | at any given stage of your development. |
| | People seldom realize |
| | that they |
| | must pray |
| | to get ahead. |
| | Often |
| | it is not clear to you |
| | what you need most |
| | at specific phases of your development. |
| | You may put emphasis on |
| | something that is |
| | less important |
| | • now |
| | than it was |
| | • two months ago. |
| | Your needs |
| | may have changed. |
| 45 | |
| | As Jesus Christ said, |
| | "Knock |
| | and it will be opened unto you." |
| | The knocking |
| | symbolizes |
| | being |
| | • alert and |
| | • interested |
| | enough |
| | to figure out |
| | what you need most |
| | at various stages of your path. |
| | |
| | |
| | |

| | The path changes constantly. |
|----|--|
| | |
| | And you |
| | surely |
| | cannot pray |
| | with equal concentration on everything at once. |
| | on everything at once. |
| 46 | |
| | QUESTION: |
| | Are |
| | |
| | our limitations |
| | a result of the image? |
| | the image? |
| 47 | |
| | ANSWER: |
| | Most of them [i.e., Most of your limitations] |
| | are, |
| | but not entirely. |
| | You will |
| | always |
| | have limitations, |
| | as long as |
| | • you are still in |
| | the cycle of incarnations |
| | and |
| | as long as |
| | • you have not reached |
| | the state of divinity. |
| | You cannot be |
| | a universal genius. |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |

| | Limitations on a broader scale have nothing to do with your images. |
|----|--|
| | But if you • encounter limitations placed on your talents and • cannot make sufficient use of them, |
| | then that [i.e., then encountering limitations placed on your talents and finding you cannot make full use of your talents] certainly has something to do with your images. |
| 48 | I will retire now with blessings of a special kind that are coming to each one of you, my dear ones. |
| | It [i.e. This special kind of blessing that is coming to each one of you] is the blessing of courage that you all so badly need. |
| | And I beg of you to use it [i.e., I beg you to use this special blessing of courage] in the right way. |
| | For if you open your • heart and • soul to the strength flowing to each one of you, you will feel courage. |

Т

| | And if you keep that strength, you can make it [i.e., if you keep that strength, you can make that strength, the strength that is flowing to your open heart and |
|----|---|
| | soul, the strength that enables you to feel courage] last for a while. |
| | But use it [i.e., But use that strength that is flowing to your open heart and soul and that enables you to feel courage] where it does the most real good for you. |
| | Do not use it [i.e., Do not use that strength that is flowing to your open heart and soul] for nonessentials! |
| | It is up to you how you use this force [i.e., how to use this force that anaplas you to fael courage] |
| | that enables you to feel courage]. You • receive it [i.e., You receive this force that enables you to feel courage] and you • have free will to open yourself to it [i.e., you have free will to open yourself to this force that enables you to feel courage]. |
| | You should know what to do with it. |
| | It will be a test of how you use the strength [i.e., It will be a test of how you use the strength that enables you to feel courage] if you accept it now willingly. |
| 49 | The love of God touches all of you, my dear ones. |
| | Be in peace; be in God. |
