Pathwork Lecture 142: The Longing For And The Fear Of Happiness – Also, The Fear of Releasing the Little Ego

1996 Edition, Original Given April 15, 1966

This lecture is given in an expanded poetic format, what I call a Devotional Format of the lecture, and in that sense this is my interpretation of the intent of the lecture. I may have interpreted portions differently from you, and I ask you to ponder the words for your own interpretation. I did this Devotional Format so I can take the words into my heart, phrase by phrase, much as I would in reading poetry – that is, devotionally.

The blessings to me in developing this format have been truly profound, and my wish is that this Devotional Format will be a blessing to others. I invite you to slowly read and ponder this format of the text – with an open heart to experience the Guide's Presence and Love emerging from among the words such that the wisdom comes to LIVE you.

For clarity: The original text is in bold and italicized. [My adds of commentary/clarification/interpretation are in brackets, italicized, and not bolded.] To learn more of my Devotional Format and see the lectures I have done in this way, go to https://www.garyvollbracht.com/pathwork-lectures/pathwork-lectures-devotional-format/

| | Greetings, |
| | my dearest friends. |
| | Blessings |
| | for every one of you. |
| | Blessed be |
| | your abilities to |
| | • understand, |
| | • absorb, |
| | • assimilate and |
| | • utilize |
| | what you may receive |
| | in this hour [i.e., in this time that we now spend together]. |
| | This lecture |
| | is a continuation of the topic already raised last time: humanity's |
| | • deeply ingrained longing for and its |
| | |
| | • simultaneous fear of happingss |
| | happiness. |

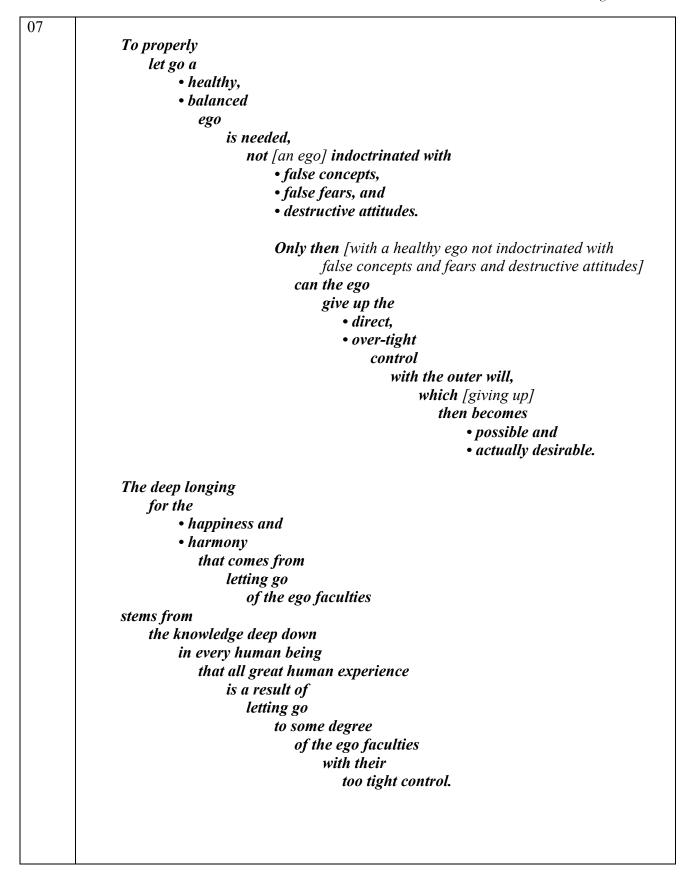

| 04 | |
|----|---|
| | This fear [of happiness] |
| | is at a very deep level |
| | of the human psyche, |
| | way beneath |
| | • |
| | the ordinary neurotic |
| | • misconceptions and |
| | • fears |
| | human beings |
| | harbor |
| | in their unconscious minds. |
| | |
| | The fear of |
| | happiness |
| | is directly related to |
| | the fear of |
| | letting go of |
| | one's outer ego faculties. |
| | |
| | By the same token, |
| | the longing for |
| | happiness |
| | must also be |
| | a longing |
| | to be released from |
| | these [same outer] ego faculties. |
| | inese [sume outer] ego jucuites. |
| | While we have discussed this topic in the past, |
| | we now have to approach it |
| | • on a deeper level |
| | • with |
| | • a new outlook and |
| | |
| | • a new understanding. |
| | |
| | |
| | |

| | Many of my friends have |
|-----|---------------------------------------|
| | on their personal path |
| | • now reached, or |
| | • are about to reach, |
| | awareness of |
| | the deep-rooted conflict |
| | between |
| | • the longing for |
| | and |
| | • the fear of |
| | • happiness, |
| | which is the same as |
| | • the longing for |
| | and |
| | • the fear of |
| | letting go of |
| | one's little ego. |
| 0.5 | |
| 05 | |
| | As you have heard me say |
| | about so many other aspects of being, | | | everything exists in |
| | both |
| | • right understanding |
| | and |
| | • distortion. |
| | |
| | It is the same with |
| | the letting go of |
| | the outer ego. |
| | |
| | Such letting go [of the outer ego] |
| | can happen in a |
| | • distorted, |
| | • unbalanced, |
| | and therefore |
| | • unhealthy |
| | manner. |
| | |
| | |
| | |

First of all, let us be clear about what I mean by the ego faculties. These [ego faculties] are the capacities vou have direct access to: • your volitional thinking and • the faculty I often call the outer will whose force can be directly exerted. A simple example will clarify the difference between • direct and • indirect will on the physical level. Your direct will can determine that • you will move a hand, for example, • how you will move it, and • what action you are going to perform. Over your • heartbeat or • circulation, however, you have no direct control. The same difference between the two wills [i.e., between the direct and indirect wills] exists on a • mental and • emotional level.

| | It is |
|----|---|
| | an exercise in futility |
| | to force yourself |
| | to harbor |
| | certain emotions, |
| | but |
| | by determining |
| | the direction of your thinking |
| | you can |
| | eventually |
| | change |
| | undesirable feelings. |
| | In a similar way |
| | • the heartbeat and |
| | • the circulation |
| | can be regulated |
| | indirectly |
| | by using faculties you control |
| | with the direct will. |
| 06 | |
| 00 | When |
| | direct volition |
| | is used the wrong way, |
| | the psyche |
| | is thrown into disorder. |
| | |
| | • Overexertion |
| | of the will and |
| | • attempts to direct it |
| | to areas |
| | which cannot be controlled directly [by the will] | | | wastes energy and |
| | • debilitates you. |
| | Can you imagine yourself |
| | forcing |
| | • with all your might, and |
| | • with sheer outer will, |
| | a change in your blood circulation? |
| | If this effort would have any effect at all, |
| | it could only worsen your condition. |

In truth. human beings have many means at their disposal for improving their circulation, but these must not be executed with the outer will. It is the same with your • mental and • emotional faculties. You human beings • often adopt the wrong approach by exerting your outer will in the wrong direction and • neglect to use it [i.e., neglect to use your outer will] where it would help your development. When the will is not used sufficiently, the ego gradually weakens. [Conversely] When the will is overexerted. it becomes so exhausted that it leads to escape from the self out of weak motives [i.e., out of motives not related to the self]. Letting go is then an escape [from the real self] which may become dangerous.

| | In order to accomplish |
|----|--|
| | the integration, |
| | you must learn to |
| | use your conscious ego |
| | for the purpose of | | | activating |
| | your inner self. |
| | You must learn |
| | the fine balance |
| | between |
| | • when and |
| | • how |
| | to use the outer ego, |
| | and |
| | • when to let it [i.e., when to let the outer ego] |
| | step aside. |
| | step usue. |
| 08 | |
| | All |
| | truly great |
| | human experience |
| | comes from |
| | the |
| | • inner, |
| | • non-volitional |
| | self. |
| | It [i.e., all truly great human experience] |
| | can never come from |
| | the outer ego, |
| | unless |
| | the ego |
| | is already integrated with |
| | the inner self. |
| | the third seg. |

Т

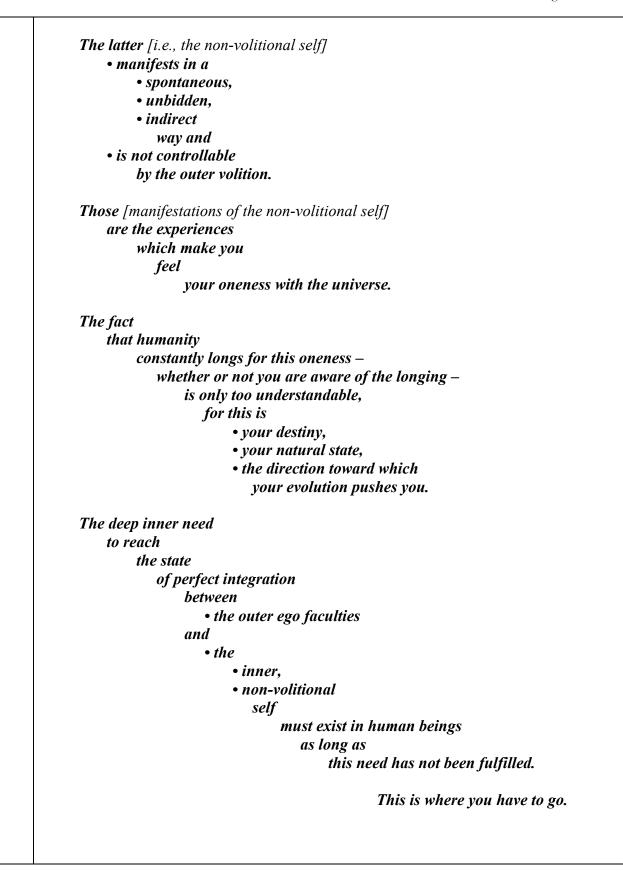

• All acts of creation in • art and • science. • all great inventions, • all truly • enriching and • lasting values emanate from the inner being, as do • all spiritual experiences, • the experience of the ecstasy of love between the sexes, and finally • the great experience of physical death itself which human beings erroneously assume to be • sad or • horrible. This [assumption that something is sad or horrible] is no more true • of death than [it is true] • of the other two experiences, which are almost equally feared although the fear is not as conscious. [These two experiences that are equally feared as death are the following.] [1.] Human beings fear a great spiritual experience. [2.] They fear • the great act of total love and • the letting go of the little self during the ecstasy of union.

| | People are afraid |
|----|---|
| | to muster |
| | the courage required for |
| | letting the inner self manifest |
| | with its | | | • wisdom and |
| | • truth. |
| | You are |
| | less aware of |
| | these last two fears [i.e., 1. the fear of great spiritual experiences and 2. |
| | the fear of the act of love and, in it, letting go of the |
| | little ego during the ecstasy of union], |
| | while |
| | the fear of death |
| | • has been exaggerated and |
| | • made into a |
| | • big and |
| | • seemingly rational |
| | fear. |
| 09 | |
| 07 | The fear of letting go of |
| | the outer ego faculties |
| | is a further result of |
| | the misconception |
| | that life can be maintained |
| | only when |
| | the ego is tightly held together. |
| | What does life mean |
| | in this connection [i.e., what does life mean when the ego is tightly held together] ? |
| | [It means that] |
| | You do not want to lose |
| | • your sense of identity, |
| | • your sense of being an individual |
| | with a |
| | • distinct and |
| | • unique |
| | existence. |
| | CAUSICITCS |
| | |

| | Unfortunately |
|----|--|
| | this sense of identity [that you do not want to lose and that you use |
| | your ego to hold on to] |
| | is associated exclusively with |
| | the outer ego faculties |
| | |
| | of direct volitional |
| | • thinking and |
| | • willing. |
| | Because of |
| | this misidentification [i.e. wrongly identifying exclusively with your outer ego faculties of direct volitional thinking and willing] |
| | you fear losing yourself |
| | without the ego faculties [i.e., you fear that if you lose your ego faculties you will lose your very self-identity]. |
| | Loss of ego |
| | means |
| | death |
| | to you |
| | because [without your ego] |
| | you feel nonexistent. |
| | you jeet nonexistent. |
| | Threatened by this |
| | "I am not," |
| | you tightly hold yourself together. |
| 10 | |
| 10 | The history of spiritual evolution has brought humanity |
| | temporarily |
| | into a state of |
| | holding onto the ego |
| | too tightly |
| | until it learns to |
| | |
| | reestablish the balance [by letting go somewhat]. |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |

```
In the more recent course of its evolution, humanity has over-concentrated on using the ego faculties only, so that people cannot get beyond the seemingly solid wall of matter that,
                                  as the ego perceives it, separates them from life.
Thus you equate
         • your physical separateness with • individuality.
It is of course true that a
         • weak and • ineffectual ego diminishes your sense of individuality.
Hence
    the ego must be strengthened,
but for the sole purpose of relaxing it again, so that it can integrate with the indirectly accessible
                        • deeper and • wiser self.
Putting your identity exclusively into the outer ego, you must fear to let it go.
```

| | To actually do so [i.e. to actually let the ego go] |
|----|--|
| | appears like |
| | annihilation, |
| | because |
| | |
| | your very existence |
| | seems threatened. |
| | Humanity's separateness |
| | is the result of |
| | this threat; |
| | it is |
| | |
| | the deepest root |
| | of your fear |
| | when it comes to |
| | letting go. |
| | As long as |
| | the ego's hold |
| | is not loosened, |
| | true happiness |
| | cannot come into being. |
| | cannot come into being. |
| 11 | |
| | Any overexertion |
| | of the ego |
| | prevents |
| | real experience. |
| | |
| | All really |
| | • beautiful, |
| | • valid, |
| | • constructive, |
| | • meaningful |
| | experience |
| | comes from |
| | a perfect balance |
| | between |
| | • the volitional |
| | ego |
| | and |
| | • the non-volitional |
| | self. |

When you unwittingly block your way to your destiny because your • fears and • misconceptions lead to • self-alienation and • escape from life, then a conflict arises in the deep psyche. The destiny of integrating • the ego with • the deeper self simultaneously becomes • your greatest longing and • your deepest fear. Such dichotomy between • desire and • fear is particularly strong in those life experiences where its [i.e., the ego's] strict control does not allow • the ego to step aside and • let the inner self manifest.

| 12 | |
|----|--|
| | Where such |
| | over-control [by the ego's volitional mind and will] |
| | has |
| | existed for some time and |
| | exhausted the personality, |
| | people often resort to |
| | false means |
| | to liberate themselves |
| | from the burden of |
| | the too tight control. |
| | They [i.e., people whose over-control of the ego has exhausted the personality] cannot stand |
| | the state [they are in] of |
| | • overloading the faculties [of the personality when controlled by |
| | the outer volitional mind and will of the ego] and |
| | • thwarting the |
| | • inner, |
| | • non-volitional |
| | self |
| | which is infinitely better equipped [than is the ego] to serve them. |
| | They |
| | look for relief |
| | and so often |
| | inadvertently |
| | grab for |
| | • false and |
| | • even dangerous |
| | means |
| | just to be able to |
| | experience |
| | the |
| | • wonder and | | | • richness |
| | of the universe. |
| | The most extreme forms |
| | of releasing |
| | ego over-functioning |
| | are |
| | • alcoholism and |
| | • drug addiction. |

Less extreme forms [of releasing ego over-functioning] are • self-alienation and • mental states of disassociation from the self. These are unconsciously instituted to effect a flight from the ego. You know how many ways exist in which a person can escape from himself. These are the • false, • misunderstood, • inadvertent wavs in which the self vainly seeks to liberate itself. When a person experiences the negative results of such an escape from the self, he or she is all the more convinced of the danger of letting go. Falling back into the other extreme of holding on too tight to the very ego which created the imbalance in the first place is no solution.

| | Only a |
|----|--|
| | Only a |
| | • strong, |
| | • healthy, |
| | • robust |
| | ego |
| | can afford |
| | to let go of itself. |
| | |
| | Such an ego [i.e., an ego that is strong, healthy, and robust] |
| | can |
| | • give itself up and |
| | • integrate with the larger self. |
| 13 | |
| | This is the story of |
| | the imbalance |
| | of the human psyche |
| | and it [i.e., this story of imbalance of the human psyche] |
| | explains |
| | why |
| | |
| | you must | | | constantly |
| | be caught up in |
| | the tremendous struggle |
| | between |
| | longing for |
| | and |
| | • fearing |
| | happiness and |
| | • the healthy letting go, |
| | although it [i.e., the healthy letting go] |
| | affords |
| | the larger self |
| | the opportunity |
| | • to manifest, |
| | • to create, |
| | • to guide, and |
| | • to be . |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |

| | Genuine control |
|----|--|
| | is not established in the soul |
| | through |
| | • tight and |
| | • anxious |
| | holding on |
| | but |
| | through a |
| | • harmonious, |
| | • effortless |
| | movement |
| | which increases awareness of |
| | the power |
| | each individual possesses, |
| | without ever |
| | making this power |
| | a burden. |
| 14 | |
| 11 | When you consider |
| | those areas of your life |
| | which function perfectly well, |
| | you will |
| | understand better |
| | what I mean. |
| | Perhaps |
| | you have come into this life |
| | • liberated and |
| | • healthy |
| | in those aspects [of your life that function perfectly well], |
| | or else |
| | you have established |
| | the healthy patterns [in your life that now function perfectly well] |
| | through working on a path such as this. |
| | Whatever the case may be, |
| | the positive self-perpetuating principle |
| | has been at work. |
| | |
| | |

15 All aspects • of living and • of being, all • of humanity's • outer and • inner activities – especially the • permanent and • repetitive ones – are based on self-perpetuating processes. Each of these [self-perpetuating processes] is like a magnetic field. The • attitude a person harbors about a certain area of his or her life, together with the • thoughts, • feelings, • impressions, • concepts, and the • actions. • reactions and • interactions which stem from these, together form a nucleus of energy. The new energy constantly arising from this nucleus [of energy] creates what might be called a magnetic field.

16 For each human being a number of basic life experiences combine to establish such a field of force. The fundamental ones, applying to all human beings, are: attitude • toward one's • work, • career, • partnership life, • toward • love, • sex, • general human relationships, • material values, • toward one's • physical health, • outer life, • appearance and • activity; • toward • nature, • art • pleasure and • leisure • spiritual reality • self-development • permanent values, and • collecting and assimilating knowledge. All these [attitudes] form separate magnetic energy fields.

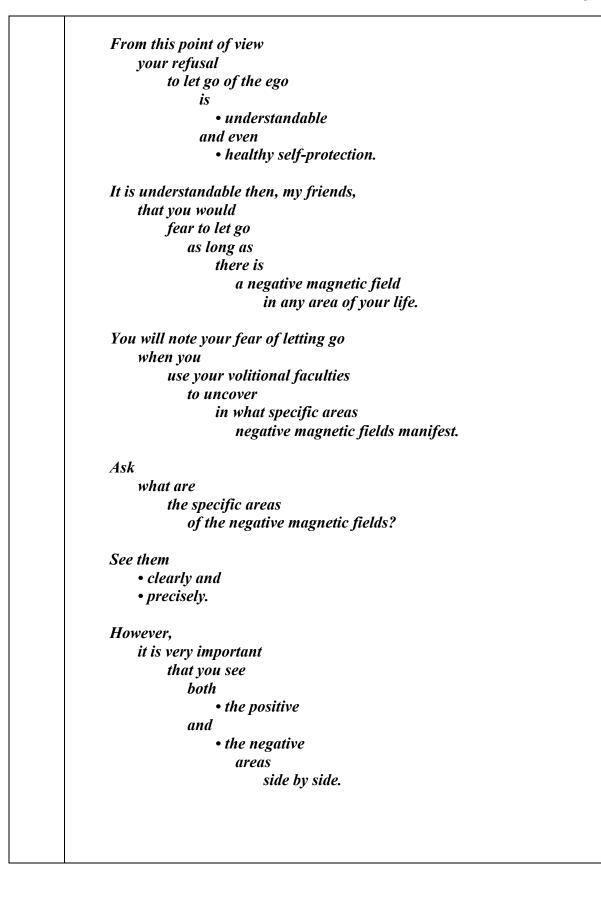

| | In such areas |
|----|--|
| | you are apt |
| | to take the smooth functioning |
| | so much for granted |
| | that you are unaware of |
| | its mechanics. |
| | |
| | Once you pay attention to |
| | these [positively flowing self-perpetuatig] areas, |
| | you will see that |
| | the ego |
| | • does its part, |
| | but |
| | is not exclusively in charge, |
| | for it [i.e., the ego] would be | | | incapable of |
| | causing so many | | | • external |
| | as well as |
| | • inner |
| | factors |
| | to function so well |
| | together. |
| | What I have given you |
| | is a typical description of |
| | • a positively working magnetic field, or | | | positive self-perpetuating energy. |
| 17 | |
| | The negative magnetic fields |
| | of one's life experience |
| | denote |
| | not only |
| | • failure, |
| | but |
| | • pressure, |
| | • difficulty, |
| | wrong timing, and |
| | • frustration. |
| | Things do not work out. |
| | |

| | When [negative magnetic fields of one's life experience are] |
|----|--|
| | closely observed, |
| | the ego |
| | • presses and | | | • pushes, |
| | assuming that |
| | thus it will overcome |
| | the obstruction. |
| | |
| | • Pain, |
| | • disappointment, and |
| | • complications |
| | follow. |
| 18 | |
| | People are usually |
| | so shortsighted |
| | that they call |
| | • the positive energy fields |
| | good luck and |
| | • the negative |
| | bad luck. |
| | When you try to |
| | directly control |
| | the result itself, |
| | you must be |
| | wasting your energy |
| | without being able |
| | to change |
| | • a negative field |
| | into |
| | • a positive [field]. |
| | However, |
| | you |
| | can |
| | directly control |
| | all that |
| | which makes up |
| | the negative magnetic field. |
| | and negutive mugnetic field. |
| | |
| | |

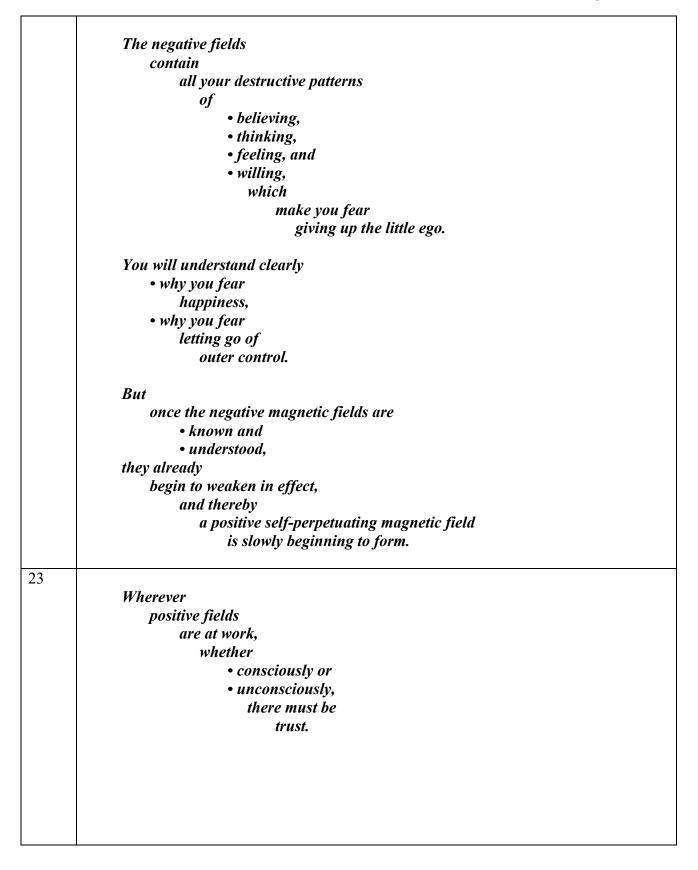

| 19 | |
|----|--|
| | No one |
| | is more |
| | • superstitious and |
| | • fatalistic |
| | than |
| | the materialistically oriented person |
| | who ignores |
| | the spiritual realities |
| | behind manifestation. |
| | oonna mangestation. |
| | This is particularly true |
| | of those who believe in |
| | • "good luck" and |
| | • "bad luck" |
| | because |
| | they cannot see beneath the surface. |
| | iney cunnot see beneain the surface. |
| | Since these people |
| | refuse |
| | to conceive of spiritual realities, |
| | they cannot |
| | perceive them [i.e., they cannot perceive spiritual realities]. |
| | perceive inem [i.e., they cannot perceive spiritual realities]. |
| | Neither can they see |
| | that they have an influence over |
| | those areas of their lives |
| | in which they appear to be unlucky. |
| | |
| | These ["unlucky"] areas [in one's life experiences] |
| | cannot be changed |
| | without |
| | • deep and |
| | • honest |
| | self-confrontation. |
| | |
| | First |
| | the realization must be made |
| | that a possibility of change |
| | does exist, |
| | and then |
| | the desire has to awaken |
| | to follow through, |
| | without shirking the effort |
| | that such a deep change requires. |

| 20 | |
|----|---|
| | When caught |
| | in a negative magnetic field, |
| | a person cannot press for change |
| | with the outer will; |
| | [rather] the outer will |
| | must be used |
| | to discover |
| | what the negative self-perpetuating field |
| | consists of, |
| | • why it exists, and |
| | • what is it |
| | in the self |
| | that has created it. |
| | Having done this [with the outer will], |
| | the person will |
| | automatically |
| | be able to institute |
| | a positive field. |
| 21 | |
| | As long as |
| | there is |
| | • negativity and |
| | • destructiveness |
| | within you, |
| | you |
| | must fear |
| | to let go of |
| | your |
| | • outer, |
| | • controlling |
| | ego. |
| | Since |
| | your destructiveness |
| | • comes from |
| | a negative magnetic field and |
| | • perpetuates it |
| | still further, |
| | letting go of outer control |
| | means |
| | giving this uncontrolled [negative and destructive] force |
| | free rein. |

| | There is |
|----|--|
| | no one among you |
| | who has |
| | only |
| | negative |
| | magnetic fields. |
| | When you |
| | compare |
| | these two modes of functioning [i.e. , identify and compare both the |
| | positive and the negative magnetic fields that function in you], |
| | you will find it |
| | much easier |
| | to feel relaxed |
| | about uncovering |
| | the nature of |
| | the negative magnetic fields. |
| | ine negutive magnetic fietus. |
| 22 | |
| | This [working with the negative magnetic fields in you], |
| | of course, is your path [i.e., is your pathwork], |
| | but I would now like you |
| | to do the work |
| | with a more exact understanding |
| | of how |
| | self-perpetuating force fields |
| | operate. |
| | This will lead you |
| | to immediately understand |
| | the existence of |
| | particular negative fields. |
| | You will also see |
| | that until now |
| | you have lacked |
| | this precise awareness. |
| | You will observe |
| | how you |
| | pressure ego energy |
| | into the wrong channel |
| | and [then you] will be able to | | | change its direction. |
| | |

| | • The more positive |
|----|---|
| | and |
| | • the fewer negative |
| | fields |
| | exist in your human psyche, |
| | the greater must be |
| | your trust |
| | in the energy fields |
| | which create your life |
| | apparently independently |
| | of your volitional ego. |
| | The more |
| | such trust [in the energy fields that create your life apart from your ego] exists, |
| | the less |
| | problematic will it be |
| | to give up |
| | your |
| | • little, |
| | • outer |
| | ego-self. |
| | Let it [i.e., let your little outer ego-self] |
| | • flow and |
| | • integrate with |
| | your inner greater being |
| | which has all the |
| | • forces and |
| | • resources |
| | you will ever need. |
| 24 | |
| 27 | This is the only way |
| | in which |
| | trust |
| | • in life, |
| | • in self, and |
| | • in God |
| | can be established. |
| | cun de estudiisneu. |
| | How can you |
| | let go of the little ego |
| | with its tight control |
| | if there is no trust? |

And how can trust in the universe be established in any other genuine way than by correcting negative fields with their • ever-repeating • undesirable and • painful patterns? To say you must trust in a faraway God outside of you is a completely meaningless command, that becomes an impossible demand. The trustworthiness • of life and therefore • of God - or• of cosmic universal • powers and • laws – will be self-evident when you understand • how and • why negative fields work, • why they exist, and • the fact that they need not exist.

Even before they [i.e., even before negative fields] are transformed into positive fields, you will already know in principle
                • that trust is justified,
                • that underneath these negative fields there is something that can be • trusted and • activated by your outer
                                       • mind.
                                       • will, and
                                       • thought orientation.
The more this vaster power, even underneath the strongest negative self-perpetuation, is contacted – because such a negative [self-perpetuation] process is only conceived in your own outlook - the easier it is for you to switch the energy currents from • destructive into • constructive channels.

25 Only in this way can the ego • become • strong and • healthy and • integrate with that utterly reliable inner being which functions in an indirect way. In this "indirection" life happens effortlessly, yet you are not a passive recipient. Things do not happen • for you; [rather,] they happen • with and • through you and make you automatically respond in an adequate way. When people want to • be left out of the life process and • remain passive recipients, they have not grasped • the nature of life and • the part they are to play.

The same holds true [i.e., they have not grasped the nature of life and the part then are to play in it] when they want to take too great control of the reins.
The ego must neither be • shoved aside nor
         • overburdened.
The balance [of the role of the ego between these two extremes of being shoved aside or overburdened by taking too great a control of the reins] cannot be established until people realize that they each possess a powerful inner being which can be activated.
If there were no such inner power, how could a person help
         but
            • overburden the ego and
            • charge it with tasks it is not equipped to execute?
Only by activating the inner being is harmonious integration between
                • it [i.e., between the inner being] and
                • the ego possible.

| | This, my friends, |
|----|--|
| | is how |
| | • integration, |
| | • trust, and |
| | • the relaxed state |
| | of the |
| | • inner, |
| | • richer, |
| | • wider |
| | being |
| | can manifest: |
| | not by |
| | • escaping into cut-off spirituality, |
| | but by |
| | complete integration |
| | of |
| | • the ego |
| | with |
| | • the inner self. |
| 26 | |
| 20 | Now, are there any questions? |
| | QUESTION: |
| | What is |
| | the intermediate process |
| | for reaching that state of integration? |
| | for reacting that state of thegration |
| | Is there any particular process? |
| 27 | |
| | ANSWER: |
| | The particular process |
| | is the work of this path [i.e., the work of this pathwork] |
| | which I |
| | have given and |
| | • continue to give |
| | to you. |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |

| | It is the process of recognition, which sounds like an easy word, my friends, but it [i.e., recognition] is not so easy to do; for human beings are often governed by • impulses and • drives they can very glibly rationalize |
|----|---|
| | but whose real nature |
| | they fail to understand. |
| | Deep self-recognition is a • long and • consistent path requiring the greatest courage of truthfulness with oneself. This is the only possible way that leads to such integration. There is no other way. |
| 28 | QUESTION: Lately, I have had mental blocks. Whenever I • concentrate and • work and • use the methods you just described, there is just a blank. |

| | It is |
|----|--|
| | • very |
| | • difficult |
| | to go through it [i.e., to go through this mental block], and |
| | • very |
| | • tiring and |
| | • energy-consuming. |
| | Can you help me in this? |
| 29 | |
| | ANSWER: |
| | In the first place, |
| | when you |
| | observe yourself very closely, |
| | you will find |
| | that when certain topics come up – |
| | • topics that you want to |
| | • discuss or |
| | • meditate about, or even |
| | • topics that |
| | • come to you from the outside – |
| | you feel an anxiety. |
| | First |
| | this anxiety may register |
| | only as |
| | a vague feeling of |
| | • unrest, of |
| | • impatience, or | | | • irritation. |
| | Instead of |
| | immediately trying to |
| | • penetrate the anxiety or |
| | • explain it away, |
| | put down some |
| | key words in writing. |
| | It is important to do so [i.e., is important to put down some key words in writing], |
| | because otherwise |
| | it [i.e., the anxiety] |
| | eiuaes you so easily. |
| | eludes you so easily. |

| Just what are these moments when you feel uneasy? What was the occasion? What fleeting thought passed through you when the camouflaged anxiety came up? Try to pinpoint it. Hold it fast. When you collect this information over a period of a few days or a week, you will have a whole list of | | | |

| Out of this [exercise] | | | |
| • a clear pattern or | | | |
| • a common denominator | | | |
| will arise. | | will arise. | |
| This may be | | This may be | |
| comparatively easy | | | |
| for you to do | | for you to do | |
| and you will soon sense | | | |
| an overall larger negative energy field | | | |
| which you block | | | |
| because you evade the truth. | | because you evade the truth. | |
| 30 | 30 | | |
| Such evasion [of truth in such matters] | | Such evasion [of truth in such matters] | |

| • an oppressive burden, | | | |
| • fears, and | | | |
| • escape from the self. | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |
| | 1 | | |

| | Once this area [of your personality] |
|----|--|
| | is totally faced, |
| | • relief and |
| | • growth |
| | become possible. |
| | |
| | As you acknowledge |
| | that you |
| | fear the truth, |
| | you can then say to yourself, |
| | "I will not fear the truth. |
| | This is an |
| | • irrational, |
| | • illogical, |
| | • unfounded |
| | fear. |
| | My fear |
| | has no foundation |
| | in reality. |
| | I will not give in to it [i.e., I will not give in to my fear]. |
| | I determine |
| | to make up my mind |
| | to face whatever it [i.e., whatever the truth] is. |
| | |
| | And I request |
| | all the help |
| | to do so." |
| 31 | |
| | When you thus determine |
| | with your |
| | • outer, |
| | • volitional |
| | self |
| | what the negativity is, |
| | the way will open again |
| | and the blocks will yield. |
| | |

| | If you cannot see |
|----|---|
| | • the common denominator |
| | and therefore |
| | • the problem |
| | which you are still reluctant to face, |
| | perhaps one session with the medium |
| | may open the way. |
| | You can then go on from there. |
| | Sometimes |
| | an opening can occur |
| | in one session of |
| | • good and |
| | • deep |
| | discussion. |
| | If you can discover the negativity |
| | without such outside assistance, |
| | you will know the way |
| | automatically. |
| | You can also ask me again |
| | and I will try to help you |
| | from another angle. |
| | Do you understand? |
| | Do you think you will do this? |
| 32 | |
| | COMMENT: |
| | I will work at it, I think I will |
| | ANSWER: |
| | If you say, |
| | "I think I will," |
| | [in speaking these very words] you are capable of observing |
| | how you are |
| | deliberately blocking, |
| | even quite consciously. |
| | |
| | |
| | |

| | This is exactly where |
|----|---|
| | you have |
| | direct recourse |
| | to your [ego's] outer will faculties. |
| | This block |
| | is not completely |
| | out of your reach; |
| | hence |
| | you are not a helpless victim of it, for it is |
| | within the realm of the possible |
| | for you to say, |
| | • "I will do this" |
| | instead of |
| | • "I think I will," |
| | and mean it, too. |
| 33 | |
| | QUESTION: |
| | I think I have |
| | some very positive magnetic fields. |
| | And then there are |
| | some very unhappy ones. |
| | Now, where the ego is concerned, |
| | I have the feeling that |
| | either |
| | • the ego runs the show |
| | 0r |
| | • it goes away completely. |
| | It is sort of an either/or business. |
| 34 | |
| | ANSWER: |
| | That is exactly what I meant in this lecture. |
| | You are a wonderful demonstration and example |
| | and it is therefore good |
| | that you bring it out here, |
| | for it shows what I mean in an actual case. |

| | Because |
|----|--|
| | the negative magnetic field |
| | exists in you, |
| | letting go of your ego |
| | is naturally |
| | very frightening to you. |
| | |
| | It appears as if |
| | you were giving yourself up to |
| | something dangerous. |
| | The other alternative is |
| | that you hold on |
| | too tightly |
| | which, of course, is |
| | what you habitually do. |
| 35 | |
| | It is therefore necessary for you |
| | now |
| | to use the approach I have outlined in this lecture, |
| | where you |
| | first of all |
| | assert the fact, |
| | "Here is a negative field. |
| | This negative field |
| | need not exist. |
| | |
| | It [i.e., this negative field] |
| | is not something |
| | given to me by a fate |
| | which cannot be changed. |
| | It can be changed, |
| | provided |
| | I understand exactly |
| | • why the negative field exists and |
| | • what makes it a |
| | • negative, |
| | • self-perpetuating |
| | process. |
| | |

| | Therefore, I declare that |
|----|--------------------------------------|
| | I am going to build |
| | a positive field |
| | which can only be done |
| | when my own |
| | • negativity and |
| | destructiveness |
| | in this particular area |
| | become conscious. |
| | Where in this respect |
| | is my pleasure principle |
| | attached to a destructiveness? |
| | |
| | I intend to see all this." |
| 36 | |
| | This then |
| | will show you quite clearly |
| | how the energy |
| | is constantly regenerated |
| | through the attachment |
| | of the pleasure principle |
| | to the negativity. |
| | |
| | This is the way you can go about it. |
| | As I have indicated in the past, |
| | a negative self-perpetuating field |
| | can only exist |
| | when the pleasure drive |
| | is negatively attached to |
| | a particular destructive pattern. |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |

Part of your resistance to correcting these unhappy areas is a • hidden. • irrational fear which comes from the misconception: "If I give up • this entire structure, • this entire field, consisting of • my negativity and • the pleasure attached to it, then there will be no pleasure [in this area of my life]." The fear is that your pleasure [in this area of your life] will be taken away when the negativity is given up. The fear must be countered by the • conscious, • rational • thinking self, once it has been ascertained that one's pleasure is not being taken away [in this area of one's life]. [In fact,] Pleasure can be yours in • infinitely better and • more desirable ways in a positive situation.

| | In fact, |
|----|---|
| | a human being's |
| | • natural, |
| | • original |
| | inclination |
| | before any distortion has taken place is to be in |
| | utter positive pleasure. |
| | uner positive preusure. |
| 37 | |
| | COMMENT: |
| | Very often we put a |
| | false price |
| | on paying for pleasure. |
| | It is not necessary. |
| | There is no price [for pleasure]. |
| | ANSWER: |
| | Right, exactly. |
| | Any other questions? |
| 38 | |
| | QUESTION: |
| | I started a new relationship |
| | and I think I could be |
| | very fond of this person, |
| | ultimately. |
| | I would like to be somehow |
| | appreciated by this person |
| | more than I actually am. |
| | There is a |
| | compulsiveness in me |
| | about this relationship |
| | because |
| | I feel I can't progress more now |
| | than the pace of my work allows, |
| | and my still-existing problems |
| | may impede the relationship and ultimately cut it off. |
| | |

| 39 | |
|----|---|
| | ANSWER: |
| | I will first answer |
| | the last part of your question. |
| | You fear |
| | that your still existing blocks |
| | • will impede the relationship and |
| | • might even |
| | • jeopardize or | | | • destroy |
| | it. |
| | Now this, of course, |
| | is perfectly true. |
| | It would not be honest |
| | of anyone |
| | to tell you |
| | that this could not happen. |
| | But [also] think of |
| | how much more this [self-destruction of relationships] could happen |
| | again and again |
| | until you would [eventually] become |
| | so bitter |
| | that you would |
| | completely withdraw from living. |
| | Think of |
| | how much more painful it must be |
| | when one ascribes these occurrences [of failed relationships] |
| | to false reasons, and |
| | how much more constructive your life is |
| | when you |
| | learn from | | | everything |
| | you experience. |
| | For no one, |
| | absolutely no one, |
| | goes through life |
| | without destroying |
| | some chances. |
| | |
| | |

| | Every single incarnated soul |
|----|--|
| | has |
| | • unresolved problems and |
| | • blocks. |
| | The healthy approach |
| | I recommend would be this: |
| | "Yes, |
| | I have a problem here. |
| | It is very possible |
| | that my still-existing problems |
| | might contribute to |
| | an imperfect relationship |
| | which might finally cease. |
| | But |
| | • this is life and |
| | • I intend to |
| | • learn the utmost |
| | from everything and |
| | • bring the most constructive attitude |
| | to what comes to pass." |
| 40 | |
| | You also must know |
| | that you cannot be drawn |
| | to anyone |
| | who does not have |
| | equal problems – |
| | more or less. |
| | Therefore |
| | the other person |
| | must be equally responsible |
| | if the relationship |
| | does not work. |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |

It is not only your doing; it cannot only be your doing. It is neither yours nor her doing exclusively; it must be the creation of you both. When you feel that • others cannot blunder and you feel • guilty for not being "like others," then you will feel • compulsive and • overanxious. But when you know • that perfection does not exist and • that no one can do more than his or her best in any given phase, you will be more relaxed. The most important thing is that you accept your present limitations with all their consequences. This [acceptance of your present limitation] is a fundamental requirement to eliminate the limitation.

In that spirit [of accepting your limitations] you can still derive • a great deal of joy, • even increasing joy, out of each encounter. And each new contact will be an improvement until you are no longer afraid • of people, • of contact, • of love, • of yourself. In this way • you will derive • more of a lesson, • more help, and • you will also contribute more to the other person which in turn will increase your own security. With this attitude, • you will not be • in illusion or • in distortion and • you will • see reality and • grow from what you see. You cannot expect to have your blocks disappear in one fell swoop. And yet you will get more pleasure out of such encounters than before.

| | Do not think |
|----|--|
| | • that on the other side of the fence |
| | are all other human beings and |
| | • that they have |
| | • no problems and |
| | • only complete relationships. |
| | Do not believe |
| | • that they never destroy anything |
| | while you are all alone on this side. |
| | Do not think |
| | • that if only you could |
| | quickly get rid of this block, |
| | you too |
| | would be among the privileged ones. |
| | All people |
| | destroy chances |
| | • constantly and |
| | • inadvertently |
| | in the sphere of human life. |
| | But |
| | mistakes |
| | are not |
| | the end of the world. |
| | If you |
| | • learn and |
| | • look at it in this way, |
| | you will not need to be |
| | so frightened. |
| 41 | |
| | The fact |
| | that every relationship |
| | is a mutual proposition, whether or not |
| | that relationship is good, |
| | must be brought home |
| | to all who are involved. |
| | ιο αιι ππο ατε πινοινεα. |

Relationship cannot be a one-sided thing. When you know this, you will also discover your own power. There is a • strange and • apparently paradoxical balance: the more egocentric the little child within a person is, the more one-sidedly it expects only to receive. The • weaker and • more helpless such egocentric people become, the more they tend to blame themselves alone for the failure of a relationship. Since they experience only their own • needs and • desires, and since they believe only they [themselves] count, they cannot share [with the other person] the brunt of failure when the relationship does not work. Nor can such a person be aware of his or her inner power to give to another person.

| 42 | |
|-----|---|
| | On the other hand, |
| | when egocentricity has been outgrown |
| | and you can experience yourself |
| | as being on the same level [as that of the other person], |
| | vour concern |
| | for the other in a relationship |
| | must grow. |
| | This will automatically |
| | give you the feeling |
| | that |
| | you |
| | have as much power to make someone |
| | have as much power to make someone happy or |
| | • unhappy |
| | as you had hitherto ascribed |
| | only |
| | - |
| | to the other person. |
| | Hence |
| | you will feel |
| | much more secure. |
| | Once you are willing |
| | to give, |
| | you will feel entitled |
| | to receive. When that shift occurs, |
| | |
| | a certain fluctuation between |
| | |
| | and |
| | • blaming yourself. |
| 43 | |
| ч.) | When you do not go to the other person |
| | · · · |
| | as a begging child, you will know |
| | |
| | • your strength and |
| | • your potential to give. |
| | |

| | This [i.e., knowing your strength and potential to give] |
|----|--|
| | will enable you |
| | to use |
| | • intelligence, |
| | • observation, and |
| | • intuition. |
| | |
| | It [i.e. , knowing your strength and potential to give] |
| | will also help you to | | | distribute your energies |
| | between making both |
| | • active |
| | and |
| | • passive |
| | contributions to the relationship. |
| | It must give you |
| | • freedom and |
| | • a sense of proportion |
| | to realize |
| | that both of you |
| | are involved. |
| | If the other person |
| | were free of problems, |
| | his or her healthy state |
| | would overcome |
| | all difficulties, |
| | for this [overcoming of all difficulties] |
| | is the strength of |
| | true spiritual health. |
| 44 | |
| | My dearest friends, |
| | the spiritual food I have offered you |
| | can indeed |
| | be taken in |
| | |
| | |
| | |
| | |

It [i.e., the spiritual food I have offered you] can indeed enrich you in your expansion, enabling you to • find and • determine where • positive and • negative magnetic fields exist in you. It [i.e., the spiritual food I have offered you] can also help you to consider the possibility that the negative can be reversed if you • truly desire this and • are prepared to go through with it [i.e., go through with this process, all the way]. Be blessed, my dearest ones. Be in peace. Be in God.
