

Sacred Dimensions of the Pathwork
3-Day Engagement ONLINE
Expanding Our Heart to the World ...
Being Warrior, Aligning with Brotherhood,
Serving Collective Challenges, Making a Difference
Thursday 9/22 – Sunday 9/25, 2022
With Erena Bramos and Beth Hedquist

The first thing for all of you has to be a very conscious understanding that your life must consist of much more than the immediate little personality. And you must also understand that this expansion will lead to happiness, even though happiness is also its prerequisite. There is no division between expansion and happiness. To follow the will of God cannot deprive you, so in the years to come you will become proficient in trusting total surrender to the God within every day of your life, in every issue, in every venture, in every decision you undertake, even in the opinions you choose to adopt. L223

As we seem to be navigating from what appears to be a never-ending series of crises, the Earth and the world we have created on it are inviting us to open to a new consciousness, the deep understanding that the time has come when individually and collectively we must find the willingness to face the many challenges to our continuous co-existence... a sacred task which requires expanding our consciousness to seeing ourselves not as separate entities but as citizens of life; willing to live in brotherhood; letting go of identification with a small sense of self; embracing our place in our world; and, finding the humility to serve life.

The Guide reminds us that to take on this task is not antithetical to devoting our path to individual fulfillment. We are rather asked to consider that the journey to embracing our deepest truth is a prerequisite to letting go of the dualistic thinking which makes it difficult to see clearly our belonging to our world ... to finding the courage to serve the needs of all the creatures on this earth, embracing our deepest longing, and welcoming Christ Consciousness into our lives.

In this weekend we together will explore, and let go of, misconceptions and fears which stand in the way of allowing faith in the ever presence of Grace to support us in taking a stand for what we believe is right, and we will open to embracing our true authority so that Vision can lead us to serving the Heart of the World . We hope you join us.
