

Sacred Dimensions of the Pathwork

3-Day Engagement ONLINE

Accepting Life As It Is...

Expanding Our Vision to New Realities

Thursday 11/17 – Sunday 11/20, 2022

With Erena Bramos and Beth Hedquist

*To you, my friends, I bring the truth of both ends of this particular human split. Continue your struggle and cease all struggle. Grope for where struggle must continue and where it must cease. And you will experience at some time the incomparable peace of no longer fearing what you do not want and no longer reaching anxiously and strenuously for what you do want. You will know that all that could ever be desirable is right here, attainable right now, ever-present at the tips of your fingers. All that you fear and strain away from is nothing but illusion, even though you may be in the midst of experiencing it. So you will truly become still and know God. You will know God in all that is, in the best and worst, in what you want and what you do not want. Both are what your deeper self knows is intensely desirable, much better than what you think you want and not at all what you fear. L253

Living life fully and in accordance to spiritual law, the Guide often reminds us, is the journey which requires dropping deeper and deeper into accepting the paradox of our spiritual task ... the invitation to graciously acknowledge and surrender to all we create individually and collectively while we simultaneously remember that there is no limitation to the depth of consciousness from which we can decide the 'right effort' required in order to better support brotherhood; to live in harmony with all creatures on this planet; and of course to follow and abide by the dictates of our longing to be in alignment with Awareness.

In this weekend we will, once again, journey to explore the teachings which are available to help us come out of the trap of the various expressions of dualistic thinking which keep us bereft, at times, of the deep wisdom which is the doorway to coming out of separateness and the helplessness we often experience in relation to being in this world.

We will create sacred space to take in the guidance that each one of us is blessed to receive if we simply 'listen,' and to experience the amazing possibilities for a co-existence based on the laws of brotherhood and cause and effect.

To prepare for our journey together, read Pathwork lectures:
