Choosing to be Without God (for a while) Meeting and Letting Go of the Fear of the Self

Module 12-4 Thursday 6/27 – Sunday 6/30/2024

With Erena Bramos and Beth Hedquist

When it is said that man is made in the image of God, what is meant is that man possesses all divine attributes, that he carries, deep within the center of his very being, a kernel, consisting of identical “material” and forces. When man finds this center, he truly becomes a god and participates in the creative evolutionary process. Man harbors within himself the substance which permeates the whole universe, in free floating energy. The vast life force is at his constant disposal. When man awakens, he finds that he was all along constantly surrounded and permeated by powers of such love, purpose, intelligence and meaningfulness, that no words can describe them. He discovers that they are his to use, that they can be used to create infinite beauty and bliss. To some degree, this same power exists in all living things. Hence, it is true that God has form—through the living beings expressing Him. [PRS-3]

And so... what is the prerequisite to this awakening?

The Guide teaches again and again that the intention to allow consciousness to expand and invite us to the “knowing” that all phenomena, all experiences, are expressions of Cosmic energies as they live through us. and further to usher us to the courage to align with all Awareness holds, is the only portal to finding the true God within.

To meet the Self without hesitation, the Guide continues, we must first become aware of, and befriend, all fear as both a conscious and an unconscious reality. Only then can we “begin to build the bridge to the part of our inner being which has remained estranged from us.” [L238] Only then can we “let in the spirit, the life of eternal reality where it could not have penetrated before.” Only then can we “make room for an entirely new expression of divine life that wants to penetrate all of our being.” [L238]

Once again, we will gather on the next module of Sacred Dimensions to challenge each other to find the faith to meet and let go of the fear of knowing who we are and aligning with our deepest reality... the God within.

To prepare for our journey together, read Pathwork lecture L238 and reread PRS-3 and L243...
