Purification Defined

What is Purification? This short quote from Pathwork Lecture #40 *More on Image Finding: A Summary gives a meaning for purification. Purification works on the level of feelings and emotion, not only action.

05	What does purification mean in its true sense? It means the elimination of every current and attitude in the soul that is contrary to divine law. These currents can not merely be regarded as sinful but also as causes of suffering and personal disadvantage to whoever violates the laws, even when this violation happens unconsciously.
06	We are not concerned in this group with wrong actions, or even crimes. All of you, without exception, know what the proper action is, and most of the time you try your best to perform only proper actions. But none of you are as yet able to control your emotions, to understand their hidden meaning and to recognize how these emotions have influenced your life.
